CAN YOU SEE IT?...

Pre Face... [or Before we've put this Face of forgetfulness...]

This light reading is here primarily to entertain you to the depth of your heart... Not to make you worried or afraid by bringing common crises and cries that we are all facing daily... Not to make you concerned with your own existence survival... simply because you experienced already all of it: lack, fear, dis'ease, war, greed, anger ...

This reading is not here to make you even more spiritually lazy... Quite contrary, this read is like a boot camp of spirituality, where only one who can work and sweat out about you is: YOU... Where only one who can breathe for you is: YOU... Where only one who can Heal you is: YOU, dear ones...

Now it is time to experience the awakening of your own heart, together with the rest of Humanity... Now it is time to accept abundance as universal state of being... Now it is time to recognize that we are not only Civilization in the Milky Way... Indeed, we are one of 200,000 plus Civilizations only in this region of this Local Universe called Nebadonia...

Now it is time to accept no limitations on our existence and our knowledge growth...

Now it is time to fully allow Devine Project to be known to all...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

Now it is time to realize that only by expanding our consciousness we can realize our closeness with God...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

Face: Can you see Yourself?... Can You see Your own Healing being?...

This book is true beginning of the end of present illusion... where we were practicing from fear, anger, lack to joy, compassion and Love... This is the time where You will not have to die, simply by choice... Your own choice...

When you realize that You can heal self, and be example to others, this will bring tremendous energies of service to one another... This realization that we are here for others, will become lead energy of Human existence...

Self Healing starts with realization that all is possible... that there is no magic, but simply knowing of God self... Self healing is just a beginning of true wonders on this wonderful Gaia, and it will come from Human heart, simply by becoming aware... When you stop being afraid, you become aware... When you stop being judgmental, you become compassionate... When you stop being angry, you become sharing... When you stop being guilty, you become humble...

All you need is to See Yourself... See self from within out, and have most radiant smile just as you meet God... You just met God-self, simply looking within your own heart...

I know this book will be a read for your every day situations as they arise... And they will... They did... all kind of 'problems', 'tragedies', 'illnesses', or even little pity gossips... And You will know how to deal with self simply going in to the book, very often randomly or by 'coincidence' you will open page 111 and read about self-discovery...

I know this book will make you smile... just a bit, and it will make my day knowing there are beings in this universe laughing about life... and not crying or whining any longer...

With all my love and joyful heart, Predrag Saint Germain...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

1st Thing First... Who are You?...

Ω Ω Ω

Human or something a bit more?...

How to determine and where to start analyzing who You truly are?... Or better: do you need to analyze self or others?... Yes, especially others, we were analyzing them, judging them, condemning them, accusing them, heating them... and many, many other #@$#@# them...

STAIRWAY TO HAVEN NOT NECESSARY ANY LONGER...

& SIMPLY BECAUSE

HEAVEN CAME TO EARTH...

Do you think this time has come that You pay attention at yourself first... and only pay attention about your own feelings and your own actions... forget others... do not give a dime why or why not others are acting this or that way...

Yes, you are hu-man... HU = God... so you are becoming God-man... by your own choice... We are starting to choose our own destiny, we are choosing how we are going to look, we know that disease is just a opportunity for US to grow out of this separateness from self, from each other, and from God...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

You are growing with speed of thought, and our physical environment will adjust in very near future to follow our divine frequency of love to self and service to others.... Do not be concern if your body have same residues of old energies, like pains, wrinkles, diseases... these are simply residues of old energies shattering from your energy body, and if you simply honor them and thank them for being there for you... You will be surprised how fast they transmute in to new energies...

See self as you are, so your physical shell can adjust...
Allow it...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

Are you simply greedy one, or only self serving primate?...

Who are YOU?... Can you go deep down in your being, and ask this question?...

Are you the one who is still hoarding and salvaging life till your last breath?...

Or, You are one who is a bit confused with this present state of your mind and view on life as a whole?...

Are you the one who is suspicious on any kind gesture from stranger, or when you experience dream with such intensity of colors and smells that you simply dismiss it as 'only a dream?...'

Are you the greedy one, who is saving for retirement that will never come, based on your state of physical and mental un-health-ines?...
Are you the one who collects bills, and constantly complaining how come these are coming and coming, yet you do not do anything different than ever before, but waiting what others [governments, politicians, bankers, priests...] will decide what is good for you?...

Are you the one who only thinks about receiving back from others when you give them any kind of service?... and then you feel cheated because you could ask more and you should worth self much more than 11$ per hour?...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

Are you decadent one who is so conspicuous in the great masses of totally unaware man?... Are you the one who have not advanced to the point where you have the slightest awareness of that spiritual state of Mind which inspiration IS?...

Are you still part of countless billions of these uninspired, unilluminated human who are still deeply barbarian and borderline primate?...

Or, You are the ONE who feels deep down this is the stage of human unfolding that has been reached by enough of you of the human race to dominate its transactions, one with another, knowing war will be impossible?... Are you the one who knows that material hoarding and physical possessions were the basis of all wars?...

Are you the One who have a genius not to place value whatsoever upon material things?... Are you the one with no greed and acquisitiveness in it?.. Are you the one who sense no evil in your genius-ness?...

Are You the One who knows that only bringing cosmic harmony in it, is the way to hold civilization together, based upon love only?... Are you the one who realized that want no more to sit at conference tables and board rooms to bargain with each other based on hate, suspicion, greed and competition?...

Are you the one who knows bargaining is old energy, and it will not be available any longer?... Are you the one noticing that most of the beings around these tables were males, man, the conquerors, and fathers of conquerors?...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

Are you the one who is aware now that woman, the mothers and peacemakers were not with their man at these conference tables during these bargaining's and acquisitions?... Are you the one who knows there will never be peace on earth and good will toward humanity, until fatherhood and motherhood sit together as world Father-Motherhood to extend loving service to one another?...

Are You the ONE who knows that such unbalance is a violation of God's one Inviolable Law, which no earthly power can set aside and survive, as males were until now so futilely attempting to do?...

Are YOU the ONE who Knows that it is A woman the only hope of saving this civilization?...

ARE YOU THE ONE?...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

Answer to 1st: It is not important what or who You were... but what You can do for others NOW...

It is not important any longer what or who you were... These were just titles, labels, stickers that can be removed in an instance... As well some of these titles were: I am cancer ill-ees... I am a father... I am alcoholic... I am divorcee... I am unemployed... I am CEO...I am _____, whatever you put here is just a title that can be so easily removed... Peeled off like a yellow little sticky from your soul veil mirror...

Open your horizons and consciously decide where you want to see self today, and tomorrow... Open your heart to see self completely detached from past, not feeling guilty if you did or did not do something...

See this moment of Now as greatest opportunity to see Who You truly Are... You are Human with capital 'H' simply because you know... You know that serving others, you are giving self Divine gift... Gift of gratitude and Love...

By serving other you are actually serving self... By serving others and asking nothing in return, You are giving self and to yourself Unconditionally... By serving others you are seeing God in every one of them... By serving others, you see Self in them...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

By serving others, you are serving God within YOU... By serving others, you finally get it!... You get what this means: I AM THAT I AM...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

2nd question, Next... What are You?...

Ω Ω Ω

Simple Human?... or Complicated One?...

How do you see self?... As someone complex or very simple one?... Or one in between?...

First step toward self-discovery is to start observing self... Not asking around what others think about you, but simply look deep in and recognize there is something more than outside sociological, political and even animalistic being...

You start realizing that you are not relations you experienced for ages and ages... You are not this 'animal' who has to fee of fear from others or allowing others to feed of your fear... Fear was and still is the lowest frequency energy that 'rules' the present 3d world... Fear was initiator of any of your actions toward self and others... Fear was based on very dense and complicated existence...

Starting from fear of old age, fear of revengeful God, fear of authorities, fear of being alone, fear of staying single, fear of starvation, fear of war, fear of illness... Fear was primary energy that was driving our societies and our human experiences... You were fear driven and controlled human animal... for millennia...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

Now, today, in this year 2012 and beyond you are learning how to transpire and transmute your fear based existence and survival... Today, You are becoming aware that you are moving from survivalistic existence to galactic and humanistic existence...

And Now is the moment for you to stand out of this illusion where only fear existed... You are now ready to recognize all of your old emotions... All your emotions based on fear:

- Jealousy is a fragrance of fear;
- Worshiping is fear based re-action;
- Confrontation is a fear mongering emotion;
- War, conflict, divorce, marriage, taxes, jobs, money, power.... These are all fear producing controlling mechanisms...

With this simple realization, you only need to acknowledge these energies, and they drop like a dry leaf from fall tree... So this energy of fear [dry leaf...] gets transmuted in to the earth, and becomes food for worms and later become food for new tree that will bring more leaves... Please, do not blame this leaf as it was only there to make your life more colorful...

When all these fears drop, suddenly there is a space of simplicity and CLEARNESS that appears within You... You become SIMPLE yet very profound and free Human...

Don't be afraid any longer to live SIMPLY...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

Are you Human with emotions or Human with Feelings?...

This simple and very distinctive approach will be elaborated more through this book I call as well “Soul Self-healing Book” or SSHB... Yet for now, just make a note how your life is lead and controlled?... Lead by whom?... By Who?... or by What?... Controlled with what techniques?...

Is it controlled through emotions about self?... About others?... About Your aspiration to become others?... About others expectations of yourself?...

YOU CAN HAVE IT,

BUT

YOU CANNOT POSSESS IT!...

YOU CANNOT POSSESS FREEDOM!...

Are these the most asked questions: “Why she/he thinks about me this or that?...” “Why I am afraid to stay and be alone?...” “Am I going to survive till my next paycheque, my next meal, my next electricity bill?...” “What is going to happen if ww3 starts?... Is it going to affect my country?...” “Why am I so terrified of death?...”

Please, observe self from within while reading these words...
Can you notice what has been stirred up within your guts?...
Can you see that these are simply assumptions about others opinions, or just glum & doom predictions about future?... Can you see these are only assumptions about dark possibilities that could, or could not happened?...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

By this complication within your energy field, you bring another emotion of control: Doubt... “What IF?” questions are the most elaborate technique to enslave the humanity, without even noticing it... Do you notice self-doubting everything?... Are You aware of your assumptions about others and the future?...

Assumptions all over the place... Assumptions about self and others... Assumptions about your own thoughts, doubts, fears as well about other thoughts that you think they have about you...

Can you understand that they do not care about your clothes, your hair, your shape... they only care about self, just enough to be ‘better’ than you... You, the one who is questioning and comparing self with this other one...

What happens when you drop your assumptions, your comparisons, your accusations?... Suddenly the controllers of you start losing grip on your life energy... Simple like that... By this simple and very genuine awareness about self, you become new Master of your own life... Not some other being who had it better, or easier, or more money or more power... It is you who recognized all of your emotions and transmute them in feelings of Acceptance, Compassion and Love...

Acceptance of You as You are right now...

Compassion toward others as they did not know any better...

Love to Self and Other asking nothing in return...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

Your body is but a carbon copy of your own dictation...

Please consider this little exercise: Observe self while watching news channel on TV... Can you describe this emotion in your stomach just after watching some senseless video of war in Africa, or some indescribable shooting in Cinema in Midwest America?...

Notice how easy your mind producing judgment after judgment: “These ‘poor’ people... these confused politicians... these not so lucky children [not like your]... Then you shift to judge self: It is coming here to... I will be evicted if I do not pay till 15th...

IF YOU WANT TO RIDE

YOUR HORSE,

FIRST YOU HAVE TO CLAME
IT!...

[READ: HORSE = YOUR BODY...]

All would be good only if I do not have this disease... and medications are so damn expensive... Better be dead than starving like I am...”

All of these look so harmless and naïve commentary of your mind, wondering in some not so probable future yet very possible one, simply because you thought about it... You almost feel that you cannot react any different after watching garbage like the news... Almost like an addict’s habit to walk toward location where pimps and drug dealer are, not really wanting it: but ending up there anyway...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

You do not even question any more is there any other way to react on these addictive and seductive drama energies your mind producing in your body while watching news, reality shows and soap operas... Simply by watching news on TV, or reading newspapers?...

Or Do You?...

You start noticing in recent years what makes you more sick than other... You start observing others, who become more and more sick not knowing why... yet, deep down you recognize self in this other you judge...

You start feeling that all these dramas from 'life' around you were only distraction from your direct connection with God's Creation... You suddenly realize that all your emotions, all your angers, all your fears, all of your judgments were recorded on energy body you did not now you own...

Now, after this great realization You start feeling what is going through your veins and arteries... You start feeling your heart beat and feeling your breath... This simple awareness that all the emotions are recorded on your body... and that you are creator of your own body, and not some lofty God, or some DNA and RNA strings of information... This awareness is the biggest healing gift you could give to self...

Your personality is what You cause it to be... Simple like this... If you want to step out of your mental state, you just choose it... Pay attention to your heart beat more than you pay attention on stock market, or on your bill for next month...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

Your power of control is measured by your knowledge...

Yes, knowledge of who You are... Knowledge of why you are here...
Knowledge of God's plan... Start Knowing self, dear Ones...

The more knowledge you intent to acquire of God's plan of Creation, and His processes of Creation [you included too...], the more you will comprehend your power of your physical body... Simply because: You cannot command that you do not know...

The greater your knowledge of what you are the greater your conscious Intelligence can build and control a body to manifest your individual Intelligence... And You know by now, that nothing is ever or it will never be added to man from without... or from outside of You... Whatever You become, whatever man becomes, physically, intellectually or spiritually, unfolds from within... Unfolds from within YOU...

Your body is only a canvas, upon which you are painting your own portrait... Please start choosing brighter and more vibrant colors, dear Ones...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

Are you Your Past?...

Past is locked Up belief system... very old and outdated system expiring its own last breath... Consider as soon you are going in past, you are locking self in the same old dungeon with dragons and demons...

You are locking self so thigh in smallest and most uncomfortable cell of your mind... Are You ready to change your past?... We are going to let go of our past to unlock our future... As soon you realize that your past was only an experience and not some heavy luggage that you are mandatory to carry forever and ever... As soon you become aware that this experience made you who you are in this moment, with total freedom to let go of all emotions you had accumulated for centuries and millennia's... YOU START LIVING...

EVERYBODY CAN TALK OR WRITE,

BUT

ONLY YOU CAN DISCERN, INTUITE AND INTERPRET!...

As soon you have this awareness what past is, you can let go of it... You will not forget your experiences and wonderful lessons, but you will remove all the excessive baggage of emotions attached all over your energy body...

Humanity's potential is future... Not some foggy past, not some famous yesterday...

Can you create by blaming the Past?... As long you are in blaming mode, you are not creating... If you afraid of consequences of any of your actions, you are not creating... If you are judging others and self, you are not creating... And If you are not creating for yourself, collective mind will create for you, so you can simply continue hiding behind their decisions...

Take decisions of your life in your present hands... not some old hands from the past... Your Hands of Now...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

Answer to 2nd: Everything is Energy, even You...

Indeed, what is common between chaos and Energy?... Are You asking?... How come in these days You notice so much chaos all around you, within your physical, mental and emotional bodies, in the world or in the universe above?...

Is this normal to live in such a chaos, and not loving it?... or better, not understanding it why you need so much chaos?... To realize what?... To achieve what?... To remember what?...

Deep down within you, You know that chaos is not chaos at all... It's actually divine order that mind can't put its brain around yet... How to wrap your mind around the unthinkable?... Maybe not to think at all?... Maybe not to analyze it to the core of nothingness?...

So literary, in your evolution that you becoming more and more aware, You go from dense mater [please take no offence to any of you...], Yes, Dense Matter.. You go from that to something faster than light!... SOMETHING FASTER THAN LIGHT!...

Now I hear all the question marks, doubts, comparisons, present physics axioms and many other dualistic tools of analytics... Please, drop them for a second or two... It is actually very simple physics, but scientists will spend billions of dollars to cut through kilometers and kilometers of rock to have to figure it out... And, You already know it...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

You already know it there is no chaos in the universe, but simple transmutation of energy... You are dissolving in front of your own energetic eyes, not able to see self fully with your physical eyes... You are not going back, or disappearing, but simply evolving and expanding... Expanding out faster than the speed of Light...

So there are things faster than the speed of light, as many of scientists proved already... In these billions of dollars experiments [CERN in Switzerland, France, and Italy... as big one to mention...] they had antimatter and matter forced in to each other...

What was the net result?... PURE ENERGY!... PURE ENERGY!...

Haven't we said for a long time that when things are released from its stuck state or its state of expression [as you are in your physical – state of expression...], when thoughts are released from its state of belief, when aspects are released from their state of torture, their state of wound, their state of mind, it is very same as this CERN Collider Experiment, in a way...

It is the old and the new smashing into each other with brute forceful LOVE!...

So, here you have these matter and antimatter smashing into each other... IT SIMPLY GOES BACK TO PURE ENERGY... Proven by present scientist... Humanity has been writing and researching it for longest time... From time of humanity realizing you are more than mere physicality of this shell, or body...

What happens when you release something from its state of expression, its state of being?... It goes to pure energy... What You haven't seen here yet, but you know, when there's another element that comes into it – Consciousness and more so conscious choice – enters into the equation, into the experiment, IT ALSO PRODUCES TRULY NEW ENERGY...

These quite simple experiments based in duality and separateness are releasing energy from a stuck form, returning it back to the pure state... This is so very much relevant with healing physical body of any misalignments, any illnesses, any stuck energies, karmic debts, any aspects that want to integrate fully in to oneness of Higher Conciseness existence with You...

So, when you releasing your old energies, or better transmuting them, or better colliding these old energies with new awareness, you are creating completely new element at some point... You will realize that smashing these two new elements together, [your illness + your new awareness that this is only an energy, stuck energy...] you will not receive some known element that you can find on empirical list of known elements till now of 110 [or 115 soon...]

But you will find out there is new element created that before could not be detected or described, or scientifically proven... Simply because your awareness was not there, this transmutation could not be performed in 18th century or even in year 2010... Where now, in year 2012 this creation of new Element from old energies bombarded with Highest Awareness, or Consciousness is possible and very real...

This new element created from this experiment travels faster than the speed of light... In spite of the fact that times are 'difficult', and you are being repeatedly challenges at a lot of different levels, YOU ARE DOING IT... YOU ARE TRANSMUTING THESE OLD STUCK ENERGIES WITH YOUR HIGHER AWARENESS...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

Simply by reading it on internet, talking with family and friends, paying attention more to self than to famous and disturbed... Simply by exchanging and sharing your experiences how you personally see your own transmutation in to Energy of Highest Consciousness, YOU ARE DOING IT... YOU ARE CREATING THIS NEW ELEMENT...

Breathe IN this New Energy created from Your Highest Awareness of who You are...

Breathe IN, dear ONES... Simply breathe...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

3rd question, as usually follows... Why are You Here?...

Giving but asking something in return?...

The reward motive which is so characteristic of those who are sense-dominated, does not exist in Nature...

Giving, in Nature, creates a vacuum that can be filled only by a balanced re-giving... Giving, in Nature, is the first half of every electric cycle...

It is an impossibility in Nature for one half of an electric cycle to remain uncompleted... It must complete itself... It cannot do otherwise... It must void itself by its own balancing counterpart...

No one can give, therefore, without a cosmic certainty of being equally re-given... For that reason the reward motive in Nature is not a part of God's plan...

They are in tune with every action-reaction of Nature. That is what is meant by being "in tune with the Infinite"... Outer thinkers desire sensual rhythms which do not synchronize with body pulsations. Excitation can come to bodies only by changing the rhythm and tempo of their heartbeat...

The third beat, which characterizes the waltz, is in perfect balance with the two, and creates the desire for happy movement of balanced rhythms which combine the physical with the spiritual...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

Having become aware of their Oneness with their Creator, WHO GIVES FREELY OF ALL HE/SHE HAS, and without motive, THEY ALSO MUST GIVE FREELY AND WITHOUT MOTIVE...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

How to transmute lessons in to opportunity?...

Yet another questioning chapter... and you are wondering when he is going to stop questioning?... Is it really necessary to constantly questioning our present state of existence?...

Where my answer to this is: Yes... I feel to question this duality and dichotomy till I find all the answers... how to get out from this state of fear?... How not to react on events around US?... How to simplify our view what is truly happening around US?... Where to start with this transmutation?...

TAKE YOUR SELF TO DINNER...

GET TO KNOW WHAT IS LIKE TO BE WITH YOU!...

Will go backwards Up... Where to start with this transmutation?... The most nonlogical and non analytical answer is: Start within... Start transmuting your fears in to simple acceptance... Start feeling worthy for whatever came to you attention... Do not take it as penalty from God, do not take it as karma... Simply take it as greatest piece of script ever written...

Start seeing around You all you can Imagine, and never look back in the past as something terrified that happened to you or yours...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

This was just a most beautiful lesson that you will transmute by forgiveness and compassion to all involved in to pure opportunity...

Opportunity of What?... You are asking... Opportunity to see godself every morning in the mirror... Opportunity to take these events from the past and thank them for being there... simply realizing that when lesson need not to be any longer, it transmute in Opportunity...

When you lesson is recognized, it become most beautiful opportunity... Give it a chance... See every event in your life, individual or collective, as greatest opportunity simply knowing what this lesson thought you...

One more UP... How not to react on events around US?... indeed we are living in most eventful era... not only in our contemporary times but consider this era will be talked as most challenging in the history of present humanity here on Earth...

If you allow self to breath in with every event that before today gave you chills', cramps in your stomach, or simply made you afraid in any possible way.... Breathe in knowing that you have to face your fears, delusions, illusions and guilt's.... You look at them in the bull's eye, come toward it, hug it until start looking like a cute pussycat, or a puppy dog...

You accept these events and bring them closer to your Heart which is overflowing with pure Love to self and to others... You acknowledge these events as something that you choose to experience, so you do not have to continue pounding self with guilt any longer... Start admiring for great writing skills that you possess, and start acknowledging that you are the one who wrote this amazing script...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

Non reaction is not ignorance... Non reaction is simple acceptance of what is in front of you, and not giving a damn what was behind you...

This is a reason why we, humans only have eye sockets at front of our skulls... To remind us not to look back in the past at all... So look forward, and know that you past will bring in to you most beautiful sensation that all is perfect what was, what is and what will be...

One more UP... How to get out of this state of fear?... One way is by simple choice... due to free choice universe you are free to choose not to be afraid any longer...

Another way is to start meditating and find your inner peace, where you choose again how you want to deal with this energy that some call fear...

You do not need to dismiss it but simply bring it closer, realizing that this fearful energy is wiggling out of your reach... .

You feel that this fear is actually very uncomfortable being in vicinity of very calm, joyful and centered being... You... YOU WHO KNOWS...

You can simply thank to every fearful thought, every doubtful impulse for greatest lesson of all, and by share acceptance why these were in your life, you will transmute them in pure energy of Love...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

Imagine your heart is a burning ring, and your fears and doubts are small ice pallets falling from your mind and freezing your face and your skin...

You simply bring all these icicles closer to your heart, and voila...

You have water to drink instead of freezing your b off...

Only thing you have to do is to consciously bring all these ice pallets closer to your burning heart, and you become Spiritual Alchemist... Something like Merlin or even better then him...

And what left for you to do after all these transmutations?... You figure out and let me know... But only if you are not afraid to share... [oh, wait this make no sense as you just burned all your fears on your burning heart...]

With Love directly from my burning Heart, PSG...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

Trusting yourself enough to go Out of Your Mind?...

Can you be trusty enough to come out of your mind?... Can you trust your own instincts that these old game energies are in their closing acts?.. Can you see self, or better to feel self as experiencer of your life?...

You can only experience AN EXPERIENCE!...

You can't talk about Love...

You can't write about Love...

You can't pretend to be in Love...

Until You EXPERIENCE Love...

Same thing about God...

You talk about God...

You philosophize about God...

You pontify about God...

Until you EXPERIENCE GOD...

Until you EXPERIENCE GOD WITHIN...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

Experience is what attracts students toward you as a Teacher... Not some analytical book or seminar, but experience sharing from your own being... You will know when you are integrating experience in your existence... As soon as you share self and your experiences with other, expecting nothing in return...

Why do you think you are here on earth?... For Happiness?... Peacefulness?... Mystery?... Misery?... Healing?... Healing of others?...

“None of this!... my friends...” I’d say: “ Let them have their suffering!...” You are here to have an experience!... You are here to share these experiences with OTHERS!!...

That’s it... You are not asking moneys in return.. You are not asking fame... You are not asking admiration... You are not asking worshiping either... You are not asking even Thank You...

You are here to offer your experiences of Love, Compassion, God, Self...

You are here ONLY to SHARE...

4th question: or questions: How to overcome Present Crises?...

Everything is Energy... from relationships, to thought... from rock to atomic fusion... We are experiencing in these auspicious times discovery of energy theft... from relationships to carbon fuels and energies sources...

We are in times where we are discovering Living based on providing solutions, based on sharing and not on shire survivalistic primate instincts... As everything else in previous civilization's and in our present human endeavor we based all our existence on the lack of energy...

Is it lack of electrical, fuel, food or spiritual energies has been accomplished to control the crowd with fear of lack?....

When energy of lack is present, then is easy to implement competition, war, judgment, manipulation, man's laws... and every other machination just to be in lack of anything...

But times are changing by big transcendence of human psyche and human perception of lack... human perception of hoarding is slowly moving to sharing with fellow humans...

We as humanity first learning that lack of any thing is just construct or illusion.... So if this lack is: lack of money, lack of energy, lack of knowledge and finally lack of God and Her/His presence in our not so abundant life...

Let's see what comes next?...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

Stop playing twisted game of musical chairs?...

Did you ever played this very silly and old paradigm game of 'Musical Chairs'?... here I referring to old paradigm as existence of lack... paradigm or loser vs. winner... paradigm where one has to have a lot [of what?...] to be happy?... Paradigm of more vs. less... Paradigm of God vs. You?...

Did you consider to address this paradigm and change the game?... by simply changing the beat of your Heart... Realizing that your heart need no chair to sit, to be winner or better than other human...

When you see new paradigm Musical Chair Game in your heart, you will hear Music start playing and all the players start cheering and singing with the music, joyfully moving toward the chairs, and taking the chairs from their spots and bringing them to the people they still thinking do they want to play this silly game of abundance... where there is leftover of the chairs when each and every one of players have one...

Now you see players running for these abundant chairs and bringing them out side of this theater, and giving them to observers on the street...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

And I call this one: Musical Chairs of Abundance and Joy Game...
See life that we are approaching with same attitude, simply knowing that you have more than enough, and the only thing you can do give all you have to others, who with the biggest smile on their faces accept this gift of yours with pure gratitude...

This new era is the era of giving freely... this new paradigm shift is based on abundance approach, not some lack or greed...

You will need couple of hours to learn this game, as You were practicing for all these lives here in total duality... You found a ways to share with your children, family, friend, asking nothing in return?... even if they tried to make you feel guilty...

Now it is your turn to receive without asking "Why me?", "Why so much?"... as you will know what to do with your excess of food, money, land, joy, love... YOU WILL SHARE IT WITH OTHERS...

And this is how this silly game of greed got fully retired not to ever be brought in our existence...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

Just imagine this grand feeling in your heart, walking around your town and giving smiles and hugs to total strangers, and all you receive from them is even bigger smile and hug...

This is what I call Light paradigm shift in to the Love...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

Answer on 4th: Stop Judging Any Crises!...

Look at all these as wonderful opportunities for your individual and collective consciousness growth... Observe these 'crises' with no attachment and with no re-action... This does not mean to be ignorant, and continue pretending that they are not there, and they are not part of your daily life...

Yet You can always find deeper meaning why these crises appeared?... Is this all your individual 'fault', or it is mostly collective numbness, that require such a drastic and traumatic events to simply allow these stuck energies to start flowing?...

Financial crash is nothing else but cleansing of old and very stale energies accumulated through our laziness and our collective sleepiness...

Please, take these comments as only observations, because you could see them as well as judgment against sleepy humanity... Simply observe and understand meaning of their existence, honor these events as ones which will bring so many people out of their sleepiness, out of their disconnect with God self, and with your Creator God...

But as you continue reading through this book, you will find more and more little techniques how to lift self from non-worthiness or self-judgment or fear of future or simply total confusion how life turned to be...

Stop judging any crises and see them as OPPORTUNITIES...

Your opportunities to grow out of human kindergarten

5th question: Who's 'fault' is Your health situation?...

Did you consider asking who actually created your health problems?...

Never be afraid of speaking out... simply speaking your heart out is the best cure for clogged arteries, throat cancer or constipation...

Realizing that being wealthy is Natural State... God given state, where we were for last 26,000 years deceived that we are not entitled to be wealthy and to live in abundance...

Being Healthy is completely Natural Process... where God do not question you at all... But if you allow yourself to doubt in this God given gift, you will experience all kind of different dis'eases and un-alignments...

When you realize that all medical issues are totally false and old patterns... all illnesses are old and false signals... As soon we become aware of this simple truth, we bring our bodies in total balance with creation...

While it is serving you, [here I refer to 'illnesses' or 'disease'...] it will be there... Immediately after realization why did You have cancer or any other misalignment, You accept it, you honor it, and you let it go... as it does not serve you any longer... You can even thank to this 'problem' of yours, saying something like this:

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

“My beloved cancer [_____, _____, _____ or you fill in the line..] I am so honored for your presence and very happy that I recognized your task in my spiritual awakening... I thank you for showing me compassion, training me with patience, that I new it was there...

I thank you for being so good actor, that you deceived me for so long time...

But, no more... NO MORE... I THANK YOU for your service and I CHOOSE TO LET YOU GO...

I am replacing these energies of fear, anger, doubt, greed with Love to self, compassion, knowing and sharing...”

Please, understand that any problem or illness is simply energy urging to expand... any lower frequency energies are on its own path of enlightenment... they are here to evolve from Anger to Compassion... from fear to Unconditional Love... from greed to Sharing... As these energies evolve, You too...

And please know, even these aspects of yours who were acting ill are so grateful when You recognize them for what they truly are: They were there to Serve YOU on Your path of Enlightenment... On your path toward Ascension...

In my present life acting as Spiritual Teacher or Spiritual Healer, I noticed biggest and almost instant self healings, when person who had illness accepts and honor his/her illness as most beautiful opportunity to her/his Enlightenment...

Keep smiling on any of your ‘diseases’, ‘illnesses’ simply knowing that you were the one who created them in the first place... and then forgetting why did you created them... Now it is time to remember why these opportunities were on your path...

Simply by remembering you are making SELF WHOLE...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

Can you notice your pattern of playing Victim?...

Do you ever complain to self or other, or even to God?...
Are You are playing victim?... Do you ever critics others or feeling guilty about anything?...

Each complaint of yours, judgment of others, guilt of self are based on low frequency of emotion and drama... You have been conditioned for centuries that you have to survive... that you have to ask others for your own God given rights till your retirement or death... whatever comes first... Death or taxes...

Notice your thoughts patterns?... Were these creative thoughts, were these Sharing thoughts toward others?... Or these were selfish, very narrow minded and self serving thoughts?... As soon you become aware of these thoughts, you just gave self greatest gift... Realization that you are creator of these patterns... You!... No one else!...

Your thought patterns carry energy vibration that is recorded on your energy body [e-body...] from all the lives you experienced here on Earth...

Are you Your Thoughts?... that is a million dollars question?... Yet, when you answer it I will not give you million kudos... YOU WILL...

Just realization that you are your thought, will create the opening in your present conditioning to crack this shell of ignorance, anger, fear, jealousy, separateness from other and from God...

With this realization, you are fully equipped to become Instantly Healed, and to be of service to others to help with their views of themselves...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

Is your Thought Energy, too?... As soon you realize what your thoughts are, you become conscious harnesser of the energy from your heart and mind... Imagine that every judgment, excuse, accusation, critic, victim playing role carry very low vibrational patterns of energy that are stuck on your e-body... Observe how many of these thoughts are truly genuine and serving others?... Observe how many are judgmental toward others and self?...

See each of these energies created with judgmental thoughts as little dark tar patches that have been stuck on your e-body... Multiply these tar patches with millions and billions of thoughts we create in single year... Imagine how do you look to some who can see energies?... I tell you, Not so pretty picture, not at all... But again, this is not judgment against your choice to experience duality, and all that comes with it... It is a big and seductive package that you choose to purchase...

As now times has come to become aware of your dark patches all over your e-body, and to start looking for solutions how to stop, to remove and cleanse all this tar... Some tried to cover their tar with 'designer clothes' or with famous perfumes, or with some expensive feathers... yet tar is, and tar does not care what you put on top of it, as it becomes more and more impenetrable and stronger... Unwashable with any known soaps and detergents on the market...

Wait!... Wait!... I can hear you screaming... You though you bought this book as self healing manual that will pumper you, and will cherish your way of life till now?...

Not really... This book is simply dogma breaker, and ego bubble pop-er... [not poop-er...] Indeed, first You have to become aware of your tar accumulated, and how this tar has been generated in the first place...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

Then we could talk how to remove it with what 'detergent' or 'dissolvent' solutions... Consider now that you are aware what and who is producing your tar, can you first stop creating more in your life?... Ask self can you stop being judgmental toward others?... Can you stop playing victim no matter what situations transpire in your life?... Can you bow in front anyone who pretend that has power over you?... Can you honor their present disguise and their unawareness of who they are?...

Once you become aware how energy tar had been generated, and you consciously stop creating it, then simply you can bring your attention toward how to cleanse the old and very stuffy, very hardened centuries old tar...

Simply by becoming AWARE how you did created your energetic tar, and realize that these low vibration emotions were only there for us to grow out of them, with much brighter light then we came on this Planet of Duality and separation...

Simply know that You are AWARE OF WHO YOU ARE... you cease creating energetic tar immediately...

What is common between Christ, judging, faults and excuses?...

A short story about Jeshua Ben Joseph [aka. Jesus the Christ...]:

When Christ said: “He who is without error should cast the first stone, no one could respond. He who is without flaw, let him cast the first stone. Let him stop and think that he is throwing a stone at a child of God.”

You can imagine that judgment of Yours as a stone... that condemnation of yours toward other is even bigger boulder... That faults and excuses are just another rock that you tossing toward others and self...

So, people do not entirely understand when tossing around stones, boulders and rocks all day long... and even continue during night, not able to sleep simply because all these rocks are falling on Your head and waking you up... All these stones are making bruises and cuts on your energy body...

People do not fully understand that tossing rocks all day long require lot of energy wasted, where this energy start affecting physical body of the thrower... Simple analogy is that all these rocks land on your head as soon you toss it toward others...

Simply Understand rather than judge... Accept rather than blame... This is not making excuses. You simply don't know what's going on... You don't know the whole story... In every case of judgment, you forsake another, and you are mistaken... When you are in error, would it serve you or anyone to start throwing stones at you?...

Cast not a first stone because casting stones is opposite to loving... Casting stones is shire madness... Instead, cast away your judgment and its cousin anger... Is there anger without judgment? Can there be anger without judgment?.. Anger and judgment condemn...

There is no need for you to stand above another... If you must stand above, then stand above your lower self that seeks to depose another... Yes, beloveds, stand above yourself... All these judgmental stones, rocks and boulders are landing on your own head... Literarly and metaforicaly...

Judgment is not fair-minded... When was it ever?... Judgment is overbearing... It is isolating... It is sacrificing another for your own comfort... Do you crave a pecking order?.. How about no pecking order... Join something else....

Christ's question was: "Who are you to judge? Who are you to set yourself above another?..."

Better you lift another in your arms... Uplift another... If you must condemn, condemn your judgment, for your judgment does harm to the one you judge, and it does harm to you... You realize how simple is self healing, when you take responsability to stop trowing rocks...

Neither Christ nor Buddha nor Mohammed nor Moses ever said: "Judge one another." Definitely not...

Their message was to Love one another...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

Judging is smallness, beloveds...

Loving is Vastness...

It takes a big heart to love under all circumstances...

Not judging is a good way to rise to love...

As a balloon rises, so will your heart of love... It is not possible to love and judge at the same time... If you must judge, judge everyone as worthy of being loved...

And, please I beg of You: STOP TROWING STONES!...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

Two Rams of self- righteousness and judgment on narrow bridge of life?...

There is still greatest world of difference between Understanding and judgment... Pay attention on vibration of word Understanding... This does not mean 'admiring' or 'worshipping', but simply understanding...

Understanding that this other person, you were so obsessed with, simply is there in front of you, so you can become aware... Aware of What?... you are asking...

Aware that this other person is doing best he/she can... Whether he is doctor or beggerman, or she is merchant, boss or even a thief... This person in front of you is doing the best she/he can...

Realize that you dislike what this person is, and not where this person is... Read one more time!... Your judgment is based on what this person is, so you allowed self simply by social insertions and conformity, and not looking deeply in her/his being realizing where this person is in his own awareness?....

Where he is?... He is exactly as he should be for you to have this realization that he cannot do any better until you see him differently... Doctor cannot do anything different what doctors do... Tax man cannot stop collecting taxes, and it is up to you to realize what this doctor is, what this taxman is... Not who?...

He is not his title, or his wealth, or his powers... yet he is simple and beautiful human, exactly like you are... And all you need to do, is to realize this... He is going through his own self-righteous life, he is going in the same direction as you are yet caring different disguise...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

If you let of your past, where this means letting even your judgments of how doctors or taxman have to behave, you will become truly happy in your heart with awareness that these beings were from the past, their 'jobs' were part of your past, and how you sow them... When you realize that past is simply a step, or line of steps going upward and forward, and these people you where having judgments in your past are big help for your climb...

With this awareness of being in his/her shoes, you simply stop remembering past, stop excusing, stop focusing on yourself... You take deep breath, and forgive these great people that were on your stairs to heaven... You take deep breath, and honor them for their service on your path to self-discovery...

You take another deep breath, and recognize that all these 'complaints', anger, frustrations, illnesses were shire excuses to forgive these man, and your self... Yes, Your self is waiting for biggest gift of all: Your own apology to Yourself... for being judgmental, being only centered into your own needs...

Your self is waiting from you to be less compassionate with self, to be less self-righteous with you... or not to be self-righteous at all...

What if you see self going through life like a ram on the wooden trunk over the raging water... that you have been thought and conditioned to slam with your horns whoever is on the other side of this narrow wooden bride...

Where you see life as place where one has to lose for you to gain anything?... Where You see life as stream of sufferings and deaths?... Where you see self as better or worse then another?... Where You see others as different and separate from you?... Where you see your God-self disconnected from God?...

What if you suddenly see self as one who will willingly walk off this wooden bridge to let other ram pass?... What if you see self as forgiving toward other being, simply because he knows not any better?... What if you see self humble in the presence of other human?... No matter what title or how big horns he has?...

What if you simply apologies to this other ram for not moving away from his path earlier?... Be good to your own heart, not to your wallet... Be good to others, not to your own ego... By being simply good to others, you are truly becoming good to self...

Apologize to the other who is guilty of being less aware than you... Greet other in your heart, and you will hear him singing soon... Remove your horns of judgments and replace it with crown of forgiveness... Instead of your sword of righteousness you pick up sword of kindness and care for others... Practice your forgiveness to all these rams that you came across in this and all other lives...

And especially apologize and forgive one that is staring you in the mirror every morning...

Apologize to yourself for being less than WHO YOU TRULY ARE...

This is the way of letting go of your past in the instance...

By apologizing self as you did not know any better in the past you become healer of self and others... Healer with instant results...

6th question: How to stop fighting against your dis-eases?...Do you truly need to stop anything?...

Rather than wondering how to stop your old behavior, you start listening music... You start caring for others... You start loving self... With these simple start's you become truly aware how big creator you are...

Consider that all your previous 'wrongdoing' lives and your previous addictions have their place in your spiritual script... There were there for you to discover Yourself... Your true You who realized how fortunate you are by experiencing all of these events, or illnesses or deaths...

Find enough courage to thank these 'wrong' actions in your past, so you can concentrate on present moment... So you can focus on your breathing in the Now...

BATTLEFIELD IS IN YOUR MIND!...

*AS SOON YOU BECOME AWARE OF
IT,*

THIS WAR IS DONE!...

Breathe Now Moment, dear Ones... Simply breathe, and thank self for noticing this marvel of God's Creation... You are just a breath away from God... Keep breathing...

Instead of bringing your attention to stop anything, start bringing your awareness on your creativity... What you can start doing?... Maybe cooking with a passion?... Or consciously walking, or playing music, or painting?... Or simply hug a tree, and tell it “I Love you...”? These are all very creative actions that require nothing from others... Only you...

What if you start bringing your awareness to your heart beat and become grateful that you have a heart after all?... Or even easier one: pay inner attention to your breath, and notice how air is flowing touching your nostrils, little hairs in your nose, going down your throat with ease of Kashmir flow...

Consider this question: Can You ever stop your breath?... Same for God’s Love energies coming from Universe?... You can ignore your breath but you cannot stop it ever...

You can ignore God’s Love, but you cannot stop it!...
Allow self to feel God through your breath...
Simply ALLOW...

Did you put on Clean Underwear today in the morning?...

Its sound like a very smart move!... Especially if you in western world can change your undies daily?... Is it?... Not expensive and very different colors, shapes and textures?...

Yet, some find excuses not to do it daily?... Why?... are they lazy?... Cheep?... or just damn ignorant?...

Probably all of it together... So when you look upon self and apply this to getting dirty energetically?... Are you ready to clean your body, to take shower from time to time and put smelly, crusty and dirty weeks-old underwear?...

Most people do!... they change undies every time they take shower... Now, you apply this analogy to the rest of your bodies. For example, your emotional body gets dirty, so dirty that no one can't even see your real you through... What do you do then?...

Go to the doctors hoping they will give you a clean sleight?... or maybe not?... they will only hypnotize you that your emotional body looks much better... especially after couple of antidepressant not so cheap pharmaco-killers... just to dumb you down not to notice your emotional dirt all over...

So basically, after going to the doctors and pharmacists you only get 'enchanted' – where dark magic was used on you not to notice your ill state, and that you don't act immediately when your underwear gets soiled...

You continue the ware these soiled undies, yet on the surface you 'think' – yes... you 'think' you are sparkly clean?...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

But this is just half of the story of today's ways of under-war'ing!...

To block you not to discover how not to soil any of your e-bodies!... That is real White Magic... while changing underwear when these get dirty... is Grey Magic and pretending through pills and fasion'istic approach to your bodies thinking you 'are so beautiful and clean!... This I call Black Magic...

This black magic is self-imposed in most of the cases, and in some others is outside influence by different systems of enslavery: religion, fashion, medicine, psychiatric clinics, pharmaceuticals, rituals, meat-worshipping, nationalism, drugs, selfishness, patriotism, conformism, control... etc...

And when you start to become aware and truthful toward your inner light you start recognizing dirty undies everywhere!!... Dirty and soiled panties are on media, in politic, when you go in the bank, in the school and especially at church!...

Not too many religious followers wants to admit how much they get dirty by doing rituals they do not even like or AT LEAST UNDERSTAND...

Most followers 'think' it is normal that god is judgmental and angry... so they keep the same right over ones they control: children, spouses, employees... by being judgmental, angry and bottom line dirty!...

Yes, these are very dirty energies, so please, I beg of you, start changing your mental and emotional underwear daily!...

And eventually stop dirtying any of your bodies!...

Conscious Choice Evolution?... Where to start?...

When you start noticing your old patterns [like 'diseases', emotional reactions, re'actions on situations around you...] as stuck energies on your light body, it is so easy to let them go...

These actually dissipate simply by You becoming aware of these old energies/patterns/dogmas/separations/... You let them out of Your energy field, and start feeling nice emptiness within and around You...

When you consciously starting to de-pattern'ize self, you are on the road toward enlightenment... and You will not look back any longer...

Don't get caught up what others are thinking about you... By these old energies of 'caring' what others see on and in you, you are giving your life energies away to these beings...

Same counts when you judge others... When you feel guilty... When you are ill... By these un-conscious action you are giving away your source energy toward this person... By competing against other, you are losing tremendous amounts of life energy...

Rudimental 'illness'?... What is it?... When you medicate self or other people you are taking away yours and theirs chosen energies...

You can medicate self with 'prescribed drugs', dramas, alcohol, drugs, cigarettes, self-pity, guilt's... while pretending these are actually 'good' for you, and being completely ignorant 'not noticing' drainage of life energy from your body...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

But, When you discover what you love, when you take responsibility for your choice... You can enjoy your life, or change your life... Or, maybe confront yourself... When you make conscious choice, you do not wait for your 'destiny'...

This is evolution of conscious choice....

When you choose knowingly, you are taking full responsibility for your energies... and with this, you become again owner of your own Life energy...

Stop going back in the past events with sad expressions on your face... and Start seeing these same events as most beautiful steps toward God...

STOP DRAMA'TIZING ABOUT DISCLOSURE & YOUR OLD HUMAN 'SACRIFICE'... AND START LOVING LIFE...

But again, who I am to tell you to stop this or that?... or even better, who I am to tell you anything?... The only thing I would like you to hear from my words is: there is no one to tell you what to do and how to see things... You cannot bring this blame or responsibility to any other soul [and not especially on me...] rather than on your self...

Please, take responsibility onto yourself, your own being, by choosing every thought and action, simply knowing that this choice is utterly and completely YOURS... Like Your Breath is only Yours to take... There is no one else who can breathe for YOU... Dear Sisters and Brothers...

With Love, full responsibility and very conscious breathing...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

7th question: Can you distinguish between Emotions and Feelings?...

What are Distractions?... And how to transmute them?...

Fear?... Guilt?... Doubt?... Greed?... Competition?... Lust?... Money?... Lack?... Drama?... I could go on for pages, attempt to list all these very seductive yet very deteriorating energies we surrounded our physical and energy being for centuries...

But wait!... There is nothing wrong with these energies, especially because we created them in the first place, simply to practice our discernments, our patience, our non-judgment, our courage... We used these energies to evolve from very unconscious & limited beings to fully conscious ONES...

We used these only as distractions to sharpen our senses, to discern between emotions and feelings... We used these energies of distractions simply to find our self within... What You can do if you still have any of these in your e-body, simply thank them for being there for you, and honor them for being so persistent and sometimes very annoying...

Give them a big Hug, let them know that you do not need their service any longer so they can rest... You let them go, as they were around you for millennia, and they did grand job... Job of enlightening One Human... Human who realized that all these distractions were his/her creation simply for purpose of stepping out of this limited consciousness in to Full Consciousness of Galactic Human... YOU...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

Why still continue dummifying down our Feelings?...

We are continuously dummifying down our feelings for centuries, with excess of emotions created within self-inflicted dramas... Drama is the most intriguing and very seductive old energy that was dominating our world...

From soap operas and reality shows, from falsified News to purposefully inflicted wars simply to bring more drama in Human existence... From stock market ups and downs, to war on terror slogans... simply dramatizing about ridiculous and incredibly stupid stories, which have been repeated thousands of times per hour by news anchors and by slide news on the bottom of the screen...

Consider this short example: Can you love stocks on DOW Jones or Nasdaq and their constant fluctuation?... Can you notice that energy created with continuous jumping and sliding of the price creates within you anxiety, worry, greed, power grab, control of situation, helplessness, despair and finally fear?... Fear of total annihilation of 'Your financial worth, your monetary assets?'... All of it with simple up-&-down intentionally created indices that have no other purpose but to create all of these emotions I listed above?...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

It was genius plan lasted for millennia's, till one day humans collectively decide not to worry about stocks, not to put their hope in this casino of deceptive and very addictive emotional rollercoaster...

These are only small techniques of mind control over population who did not want to hear the truth, not because they have been ignorant, but simply they could not see the truth even if it was in their face for decades...

But, now is the time where all, and I mean all of Humanity will hear the truth... For some it will be the most surprising surprise of all... It will be like a thief in the night, showing up one morning: many people will go in the bed one night quite ignorant, very worried, totally paranoid and afraid... and waking up in to the world where Truth resides will piss you off good... Very, very good...

And then, when you start becoming aware this is really happening, you will start listening your own Intuition, simply as you listened TV for decades... Yes, Your Intuition and your Feelings will become Your true Friends and allies, who you will feel closest with...

You will realize that all the emotions you created in the past, could and were turned against you, simply to enslave you... You will realize that emotions are takers and needers.... While Feelings are share-rers and givers... Feelings like Love, Compassion, Forgiveness, Knowing, Sharing...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

Soon Your dummying down process will be totally obsolete, as soon you become aware...

You will look through all the events with such a clarity, and this clarity will come from within you...

From within your Intuition... From God Within... [Or, G... Wizz...]

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

To fear or not to fear, that is a question?...

Did you ever try to analyze what is 'fear'?... Not the word 'fear', but what bring this sensation of pain in your stomach, this grip around your chest, this sharp pain in your head?...

What is fear?... But simple reminder that we are still paying attention what others will think about our own actions... that we still judge self not being up to other standards...

What is fear?... but gripping tool of others who want so badly to control your thoughts, your feelings, your actions [or better nonactions...]

What is fear?... but illusion that others, and society wants to enforce upon your beautiful being, not to remember who you truly are...

What is fear?... but distraction from true meaning of life, that lays not in your possessions, your powers over others, your covers of your physical body...

What is fear?... but your coward'ness to face godself with every move you step... not feeling freedom with every breath you take... with every jealous glance you give others...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

What is fear?... but complete fabrication of society that want to control our feelings, not fully allowing us to remember Creator God...

To fear of what?... You ask... Yes, indeed, did you truly ever attempt to feel why you develop fear of past, and why you are terrified of future moments?...

To fear at all?... what about this... can you allow self not to react in programmed fearful mode, and simply accept, yes, accept what ever is on your path, in this present moment...

If you experience 'bad' news on TV, instead reacting and feeling grip of fear from war in your stomach, you simply breathe, knowing this is as perfect as sun rising today...

If you feel that fear is building in your body, simply accept and recognize where it's coming from, and you will see how simple is to extinguish this very low vibration in your energy field... Simply by loving the moment of your awareness and full acceptance of what is in front of you at this moment of Now...

So, To fear or not to fear, that is not a question...

To fear or not to fear, that is a choice...

That is a choice of aware being...

That is free choice of being who knows self...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

That is deep knowing that choice is only what separate afraid from courageous...

Give it a try... face your fears with pure choice of love for self and others...

Face your fears with unlimited acceptance of moment you are in...

And, btw, it was your choice to be here NOW, on Earth in these wondrous moments of en'mass ascension... of group ascension as One...

See examples around you, of brave souls whose courage can be only reminder that you can stand tall as they do: See David Wilcox, see Benjamin Fulford, See Julian Assange, see all other light workers on line, see brave souls who dared to stand up against this society asking only for Freedom of choice...

Because they know, they will always choose FREEDOM over fear...

Be pure example of FREEDOM of Choice...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

Where Love [with capital 'L'...] resonates?...

Can you proof you love your child?... Can you distinguish different flavor of love toward yourself and toward your partner?... Can you find differences in emotion when you were in-love for the first time, and when you feel this jolt in your stomach when you see some random other couple being in love, hugging and kissing?...

Can you notice emotions You produce following inner mind conversation: “How come I cannot experience this being in-love emotion again?... Look at them!... Why They are showing off their in-lovness so openly?... Why they are rubbing it in?... Do they know I am all alone, and that I just lost my partner?...Even, I did not love him for last 20 years, I still feel lonely and un-loved?... Why?...”

Is this emotional inner conversation spikes within when you observe two beings in love?... Do you notice your inner emotional rollercoaster, and how fast you go to the heights of remembering you being in-love, to the lows of being jealous at these two beings, who care less what others think about their state of in-lovness?...

Only difference between your in-lovness and their is that they do not care what others think about it... You do!... You see this as a lack of love in you... You still think that God forsake you, and that you have to live in misery of loneliness and separation from Him...

Simply because you see self as alone?... Are You alone ever?... If you have this inner knowing of God and It's ever presence in every single being, thing, in every single feeling, action, and thought...

YOU ARE NEVER ALONE... NEVER...

This is what you feel when you see two in-loved beings... They know God in other person they hug and kiss... They see God in themselves by standing naked in front of this other godly being... They are not 'ashamed' any longer to stop searching for love out side of them ... They are very content in this present moment, not only because they have someone to hug, but because they realized they have never been alone....

They see this other being standing next to them, as God itself, and this time it is in physical form... When you simply allow self to see every single being as God, how You can be alone, ever?... You just turn around and see mailman, you see sales clerk, you see your parent, you see yourself in the mirror, you see children playing and enjoying life... You see God in every single being around and within You...

This is the moment of true Love with capital 'L' realization... This feeling of unprecedented and never ending proof that You were never alone, That You are never lonely... and that You will never feel un-loved... NEVER AGAIN... Simply by knowing God within ALL... And God is the ONE who will never let you go, no matter what you think about self, or what you did to others... God is never judging you for having this 'disease' or that emotional breakdown...

It was you who judged yourself... Only you dear ones... So as You realize this, you can simply stop judging self and others, by loving them as they are... Exactly as They Are... As God self-presence within every single being here on Earth and beyond...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

This counts for You as well... When you stop judging self, and when you see God within self, you become In Love... Not with someone, or something, yet you become In Love with Your self... Only where judgment is no more, Love can sneak in and express itself in full bloom....

Realize that when Love comes in your being, you transform from petal to fully open rose... You transmute from cocoon worm in to beautiful butterfly... Only through Love... Only through Love with capital 'L'...

We had been practicing love with small 'l', which you can describe self as judgmental love... or love from your mind... But Love with capital 'L' has no judgment at all... This Love accepts all as they are... This Love comes from your heart... This Love have no judgments against self... This Love is simply present and all-encompassing because it knows God within All of You...

Start Loving self dear Ones, by simply seeing God self watching you back in the mirror every morning... Start Loving Life... because YOU ARE ONE... YOU ARE ONE LIFE... YOU ARE ONE LOVE...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

8th question: Can you notice your Inner Awareness?...

Can you notice when gossiping?...

Indeed, as soon you become aware of your gossiping, about others or about self, [while talking with your ego, constantly being bombarded' with doubts, and low self esteem, and keeping you in non-worthiness...] YOUR GOSSIPING BECOMES TRANSMUTED IN TO ENERGY OF AWARENESS... Where energy of Awareness is actually energy of higher consciousness...

So, as soon you become aware of situation, of self, of others, of your re'actions: YOU BECOME MORE CONSCIOUS... That simple... And who said that enlightening has to be complicated or very elaborate?... Only your ego through your mind 'loves' to complicate and to analyze, and to doubt continuously...

When this realization rise within your selves, You immediately become Aware... which is equal to Higher Consciousness... So, please keep practicing your awareness... path self on your back when you have realization of any kind... especially if these realizations are funny and humoristic...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

All realizations are coming not from outside, but from within... You call this intuition, clairvoyance, feeling in your heart, or simply knowing... Realizations need no proof... For example: You Know that You a male, without looking under your skirt?... Right?...

Realization quickly grows in to awareness, and as soon you start talking about your realization with others, You become aware... You care less what they will think about your realization, simply because you need no outside conformation that you are a male, or that you are tall...

When you ask no proof, from your environment, or even from God you becoming aware more and more... Because you know: if asking for proof, you are still keeping self in doubt for your existence...

Awareness is the Queen of Full consciousness... Knowing is the King of all the truths...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

How much for two kilos of Awareness'?...

You are thinking: Silly question?... Where you can buy some awareness, anyway?... Why to buy it anyway?... Do you need more of this, awareness, and for what reason?...

As you like to live in ignorance and doubts, so please, do not ask me such a silly questions any longer.. You are just wasting our time...

Pst... hey, you.... come over here... Where do I order some awareness?... On line?...

There was a sign: "If you need more awareness, God Luck, and be safe... we run out of all the supplies, as the big wave of online orders came and swipe our store... Try our competitors... You know... CNN, Fox, CNBC... They have it plenty... Maybe a bit stale, yet still eatable, and fully approved by FDA... "

Exactly my answer... First, how much you need for two kilos of pure awareness, and can you charge it on Visa or MC?... Second, which quality grade you are looking for, real deal or some fake knockoff?...You should not settle for lesser product... You need full quality and pure product...

Then You had an idea: What if You start growing my own homemade fully organic Awareness?... You can care for it, You can love what you create with your own hands, and do not relies on some chain of productions from China or some third or fourth

You can start being responsible and seeing what is happening around US... You can start feeling others talking and observe their actions without judgment...

You can simply be you, and bring your all awareness to your breath...

You can simply observe your own thoughts, and be happy where You are...

You can be aware of souls around you, and knowing that All is all right in my local Universe...

You can be aware of things on the sky, not being afraid any longer...

You can be aware of your habits, and what they are doing to your body and spirit...

You can be aware of your love for self, and for others...

Yet, while You am thinking so much, You can replace "You can..." with I AM...

I AM aware that awareness has not price...

I AM aware that awareness is part of our own creation...

I AM aware that awareness is always within US, and we only have to bring it to the surface of our being...

I AM aware that I am part of FatherMotherGod...

I AM aware that ALL IS PERFECT IN OUR UNIVERSE...

I AM AWARE OF MY AWARENESS...

9th question: How to bring Wellness & Abundance upon self?...

Self Healing techniques, that require only YOU?...

Yes, indeed these techniques exist... for Millennia's and millennia's... But only for ones who totally trust in self-healing and instant manifestation of well-being...

All other doubters, suspicious Thomaa's and judgers of self and others: these ones can skip this chapter entirely and maybe give a book as gift to others... who are fully open to read with their hearts, without judgments, doubts, fear or Divine... This very unselfish act of giving this book to other, without asking anything in return, would be first self-healing technique that You start practicing... Even it is totally on unconscious level, You just started to serve others...

Is there any other way to say this: Self-healing technique that does not require YOU?... Indeed, this is the only way of self-healing... It comes only from You and only by You and only for You... Can you get it?... You are the one who is choosing who to heal, and when you realizing that only you can heal Yourself, in this moment you take full responsibility to simply change the frequency of your existence...

Just like a TV channel remote: You realize that You are remote, you are the channel you are searching for, you are the channel you are presently watching... and You are TV as well... So, simple as this, you make a choice to switch channel from judgment to compassion... or you switch from anger to love channel... or you switch from drama channel to channel of total acceptance?...

Try to imagine how little effort you need to switch from news at 8, to channel called “8 ways to love self...” Just like this you flip your emotional state of despair with world situation in to total acceptance that is the Universal way of our Human Awakening...

Start flipping all your inner channels, and observe how fast your state of consciousness change... Almost instantly you become enlightened simply by choosing it... And when you become more aware of your presence in to your life, than you become beautiful example of creativity for every other being around you...

Suddenly you experience bursts of unknown creativity and joy, no matter what you do... Washing dishes, cooking or painting murals become enlighten activity simply by switching channel from serving self only to serving others...

When you recognize self as example to others, asking no conformation in return, you start living Life as truly given by God... Life was not given to be suffering or misery or expire after couple of decades... Know that all of your creative work is forever recorded in your energy body, where these creative acts, thoughts and deeds are the most beautiful example to others who come across you in person or they come across your creative work...

Any work done for others is true Creativity... any work dedicated to others is timeless and priceless... Any work came from your heart is unconditional and expansive... So, when you heal self, you are actually healing all the world around you... Unconditionally and Irrevocably... Know when you discover secret of Self Healing, there is no way back to your selfish and greedy old self...

So when you finish this book, give it to other... Gift it to other, asking nothing in return... Not even for them to read it... Just GIVE IT...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

Story to Imagine: How Your Energy-Body can change Your physical shape?...

Imagine that every thought is part of Creation... Imagine that You can manifest by thinking it... Imagine that every emotion is part of Your own Energy Body [e-body...] Imagine when you experience emotions, you are depositing energies all over your e-body, your neighbor e-body, your town e-body, your planet e-body...

Imagine that every thought, emotion, feeling, action, re-action has its own frequency energy... For example: simple thought of 'being late' counts for -5 points [negative 5 points...] another emotion of 'jealousy' counts -95 [negative 95 points...], or emotion of 'lust' counts only -295 [negative 295 points...], yet another very heavy emotion of feeling 'guilty' counts for -450 [negative 450 points...], and one of most challenging ones on our e-body is 'non-forgiveness' to self and to others counts mere -500,000 [negative half million points...]

Please, contemplate and calculate how many thoughts, emotions, feelings, re-actions you do only within hour of your daily life?... Observe this hour of yours during work, being with family, being out of comfort zone, thinking about past actions and word that others did to you, or you did to others, thinking about your future, your survival, your bills, your achievements?... then calculate all these thoughts and multiply them with these suggested negative numbers...

Please, be true to yourself, as no one has to know these numbers but you... This is simple way for You to become aware how your e-body works through your emotions and thoughts...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

Now while you are attempting to become aware of your hourly negative number, consider that average human creates about 60,000 thoughts per day, and this translates in 5000 per hour for every hour of you being awake... which of these 5000 thoughts 95% is negative emotions, thoughts, reactions, gestures, words...] so we end up with number around -5,500,000 points per hour...

Consider this is accumulative energy that stays around and on our e-body since we became conscious of self and our existence... sometime after 7 or 8 years of age when we become aware of our thoughts and emotions... plus add some negative energy points for collective un-consciousness, collective re-actionary mood like wars, like soap operas, like local political dramas... and so on...

Now, after 40 years of living on this earth with this attitude toward self and others, you accumulate something in range of 1,287 trillions of negative energy points [this is - 1,287,000,000,000,000,000 ep's...] This negative energy point accumulator is simply your e-body that has been biggest garbage collector in the universe, and not realizing what it was doing... or better, what You were doing to self... on hourly rate... every hour of a day... every day of a year...

If you want to spice this up, these energies are even carried from previous life's called karma... So you can even calculate and add on top this mega number...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

This story of Imagination is not finished yet... To understand that these negative energies all over your bodies start showing UP in form of diseases, lacks of energy, ageing, all physical misalignments, disconnect with Divine... As further You are from balance of your e-body, which is zero-point or '0' number, you will and you are experiencing more and more dis-ease, more aging, more 'pain'...

Now here is GOoD part... Truly wondrous part... You posses as humans not only these 'negative' emotions, thoughts and re'actions... You possess deep down in your DNA code, written by God some and maybe all of the following items, that I call feelings... [these are not emotions, but simply feelings...]:

Compassion...

Empathy...

Sharing...

Acceptance...

Gratitude...

Gratefulness...

Forgiveness [to self and other]...

Joy for Life...

Unconditional Love...

Knowing God...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

I can not even put enough zeroes on these numbers, how much these feelings carry US in positive direction... Simply know Instant Healing from any kind of disease is bringing self in to Zero-Point by forgiving our past, by accepting our presence, by not being afraid and not to worry about future... And it can be done with one single intent of total forgiveness to self...

With simple exercise of forgiveness to self, you can transmute and cleanse all the accumulated negative energy points from this life and more...

When you forgive others, you start transmuting negative energy not only for your neighbor, your family member, but your town, your country... Indeed, one very loving soul can balance and transmute towns, and countries by simply accepting and forgiving all the past, and becoming example for all others how to be in balance...

Through Joy... When you become aware there is no more judgment in your mind, and that you are seeing all others around you as part of God's creation, You become One of these who will balance Towns and regions of countries...

Simply read these feelings that are mentioned earlier, and feel them... Feel how they resonate within Your Heart?... Please, do not analyze them, as they cannot be analyzed or dissected... These are God given to US all, and it is only upon US individually how to become example of Balanced being...

Start Now... Start being aware of your thoughts, your

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

emotions and transmute them in Feelings... That's All folks... For Now...

than Honor... Than Act some more...

1. Some ground rules to follow... First and only rule: there are not rules, only guidance, only opportunities for You to discover self fully... All decisions will come from within; all guidance will come to the surface of your well being... know this New World is not new planet, but new Consciousness...
2. Keep track of your EXPERIENCES... Be comfortable with everything that has no logic...
3. All events are part of the Experience...
4. Share with others, but without pontification, without any criticizing, overanalyzing, never condescending...
5. Start learning from within the Game, not standing on side lines...
6. Leave No room for critics, judges, pontifiers in your life...
7. Add your energy by sharing...
8. Honor everyone else, including self, and ones you do not like... Respect them, agreeing it with them or not...
9. Honor is compassion for others... Discussing is honoring other views... Honoring means you are never a victim...
10. Act... means do Acting by recognizing characters that you created...

10th question: How to discover Relation with Self?... YOUR SELF?...

Realizing that Judgment is opposed to Love?...

The Bigger error yet, perhaps the biggest error of all, is judgment... Judgment comes from false premise... When You make assumptions, you simply presumed an apparition, and you found it really rally unforgivable...

When Judger realize that He/She is judged one as well, as soon he does not take responsibility for every thought of His... When judger forget to take responsibility to care for his/her neighbor...

A very gentle example of transmuting judgment into compassion could be this one: Imagine speeding driver cutting you off, cutting through red lights, while you seeing a driver having no regard for other drivers, a very careless driver you could only hold in low esteem until you, who were tut-tutting realized that this same driver was rushing his young son to the emergency room of the hospital?...

The boy had had an accident... The father was saving his young son's life... Now, when you know circumstances, where is your judgment?... You have compassion instead... You have compassion instead of anger... Once you understand, You have compassion instead of judgment... Under the same circumstances, you might well do the same... And you would want others to understand you rather than judge...

Understand rather than judge... This is not making excuses... You simply do not know what is going on... You do not know whole story... In every case of judgment, You forsake another, and you are mistaken... When You are in error, would it serve you or anyone to start throwing stones at You?... Do You Understand?...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

Maybe to Meditate?...

What is point of meditation?... simply to find personal relation with self, without outside influences and old programming that was indoctrinated upon our being for millennia's... To get detached from collective consciousness [or better unconsciousness...] and to simply become example of being who knows how to care for self first, without asking too many questions all day long...

To Meditate, it could feel like a high-speed train to spiritual recognition of who we truly are as Human... To mediate brings you closer to God-self, and without any old energies dross that is/was still accumulated on your emotional body...

Meditation you can take as spiritual bath... As you know already, you have to take a bath or at least shower every couple of weeks or days, or some hours... Consider that Your spiritual, emotional and mental bodies gets cleansed best way with meditation... and if you do some Yoga, this is like a spiritual soap with highest effect of cleansing with no reaction on your skin... No what so ever...

11th Hour: Where to Look for God?...

God within, or without God at all?...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

Did you ever consider asking first what you can do for God, before you ask God to do anything for you?...

Did you ever consider to Ask first what you can do for God, before you ask God to do anything for you?...

Yes, we can be quite ignorant creatures... We always think about self first, and then again we consider thinking about us...

IF YOU ARE A GOD, CAN YOU OVERRIDE ANY BELIEVES...
THAT YOUR MIND CREATES?...

Why we ask God to help only when we are in distress, or we are ill, or we are broke, or we are hungry?...

'Why God?.. Why God you allow all this misery in my life?...' and if you listening very carefully, you can easily hear Him saying:

"My Beloved son, you asked Me to show you Humility... How do you expect Me to show you humility when there is no scene arranged?... I arrange scenography and script, but you choose the actors and message of your play... And all you do play is ignorance... shire ignorance about your inner self, about others, about Gaia, about Me...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

Then you ask me about GOD and how many times a day to pray and worship ONE you can't prove it exists... So I sent you many messengers to simply tell you where I AM... What do I command you to do?... Right?... Moses came not with 12 or 15 commands, but with simple suggestions about each other... Jeshua came not to be nailed on the cross, but to deliver example of Unconditional Love to others as only way of existence... Buddha came to show you balance, balance within that will transmute all around and lighten the path for others...

You ask Me to teach you Patience... Wright?... and what I did was simple repetitive situations, that are quite boring and annoying... such your Mum nagging every day that you picked wrong wife?... remember this one... And then you reacted after second nagging and walk away... Right?... Perfect example of patience...

You ask Me to teach you Service: So, look around how many people serving others... Unconditionally... without asking any monetary or other values in return?... How Many?... You twisted this service word in to hoarding, greed, control... where if you simply realize that this beautiful word SERVICE means SERVICE TO OTHERS... UNCONDITIONAL SERVICE...

You asked me to teach you Courage, so I setup events on Earth for you to experience it fully... and because this was most requested experience, I decided that we do 'Awakening with Courage en'mass' meaning here full Globe will discover courage almost instantly....

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

It will be truly beautiful display of energies, when all of you, my Beloved, realize that you are remembering why you are here, in these beautiful times... You will remember who you are... You will remember Me... You will remember our conversations and our laughter...'

After this truly beautiful monologue from God, I decided to ask Him:

"Dear God, what I can do for You even before I start thinking how fast you can save me from situation I am IN... So, Dear God, what I can do for You?..."

And after longest pause He very gently answered:

"Beloved Son, you are already doing it... simply by BE-ing it... simply by being of service to others... simply by experience all this wonders of life....

You experience LIFE, You Love Life, and with this you experience ME, and through you I experience LIFE...

I love you for this courage, to be here in these very tricky and turbulent times...

Only brave Ones dared to sign this contract with Me and Gaia... Only brave ones.... And you are one of 7 billion Brave ONES...."

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

How to Let go of Letting Go?... Or taking full responsibility to Let God?...

Taking full responsibility of letting go?... How this is humanly possible? How You can take responsibility of something that you want to Let go?...

Maybe if we elaborate a bit more what letting go means and feels... When I heard a story from my Father, during my teens years, how he though his students in army school... I was in awe almost all the time, listening and watching first hand, from survival skills lessons to listening tools, from psychological approach to demagogical doctrines...

WHEN YOU UNDERSTAND THAT NOTHING IS A FACT...
YOU REALIZE THAT YOU JUST LET IT GO!...

Was amazing for me to be part of something we call class in Life... One of his very intriguing stories was teaching some of his students how to save drowning one from the river or sea..

He was very good in putting scene and actors in perfect light... [Like he was working for Hollywood in previous life...] So, the team was crossing the wild river only with rope above their heads, and they can barely touch the bottom of the river...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

In one moment one of his students slipped and disappeared under the water... appeared in total panic and horror in his eyes... fully loaded with equipment, just glancing at him, my Father realized that this one do not know how to swim, or at least he was terrified of water and drowning...

He jumped next to him, yelling to him: 'Relax, let it be!... do not struggle!...' and as much he was telling him, this student gets more and more panicky, waving his hands, flapping his feet, and going deeper and deeper under water...

My Father gave him an order: "Soldier, Let it Go of your gun!... drop your equipment!... release all the luggage you have on you!..."

And while telling, or better yelling at him, he was approaching to him closer and closer.. The rest of class was watching with fearful excitement and horror, feeling guilty that no one wants to help...

Yet, my Father continues: "Do not struggle!... let it just be!... You can save self, without anyone's help!... " and coming even closer and closer to this teary eyes, terrified of death from drowning...

As soon my Father reached him, young man starts latching on what ever my Father has on him... Grabbed my Father hair... his collar... start climbing on his shoulders....

And at that moment, the biggest surprise came for all watching and me listening: BUM!... my Father smack him strait in the nose, broke his nose and make him unconscious...
wow... I was wide eyes expression, with despair and judgment on my mouth...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

Then, my Father calmly approached this young soul from behind, kept his bloody face above the water surface... and brought him safely on the shore...

Asking in very kind and authoritative tone: 'Please, can someone attend his bleeding nose...!' All were in shock, why, how, he just broke his nose, and, like nothing happened... wow...

My Fathers words ended all the silent discussions on all our faces... [as even me was totally tumbledown with this action of saving!?!... I was full of judgment and accusation....]

So my Father finished his story with these words: 'Sometimes you have to be knocked down, hard... to simply LET IT GO...!

Well, I did not understand this at that time.. Not even long after he crossed over... But this story came to me today in the morning while thinking about swimming in the Adriatic...

I get it now... I Know now... We have to Let it Go, we need to Let it Go of life, to fully experience Life...

We simply have to take our own responsibility, for what and how we lived, without any blames and guilt's... yet, we have to let Go of being too concern what life can bring us in future... by asking 'What if... that or... this...' we bring doubts in FatherMotherGods plan, we bring guilt in our own experience...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

We simply need to accept that All is as PERFECT as it should be...

At this point I remembered the final teaching from My Father, as He said following to this young drowning 'victim':

"Dear Hrabri, [and his nick name in translation was 'Hrabri' or 'Brave one'... go figure... or just another comic twist in My Father's story of life...] I thank you very, very much for giving me this great opportunity to give an example to others of how Let it Go of Letting it Go of everything we care for: things, opinions, judgments of others, and especially death... When you Let Go, only at this moment you knew YOU ARE FREE..."

So, I tell you all: Let Go of everything and anything... Let go of Judgments of self and others... Let go of money and fame... Let go of conspiracies and destructions... Let go of Fear and death...

Simply because, these are mere illusions, necessary illusions which lead us toward our enlightenment as Species... We can simply be grateful to illusion [to our fears, illuminati's, dark forces, our judgments, others 'crimes'...] and say big THANK YOU Dear ILLUSION... and NO THANK YOU.... any more... as I FOUND MY TRUE SELF...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

YOU LET GO OF ALL ATTACHMENTS!... ALL OF IT!...
AND THIS IS WHAT TRUE FREEDOM IS!...

Where God IS?... and Who's choice It is?...

Before you continue reading following parts, gentle warning: It has tremendous power for self healing and increasing self-worth immensely and almost instantly... So, who is not ready to be fully healthy, please skip this 11th and 12th Chapter entirely, as effects of just reading these words will be immense and sometimes very unexpected in every aspect of your life...

Flow of energy will be felt not only through your bodies, but as well throughout all your immediate environment, all of your aspects that hang around you, all your karmic energies that still wondering when you will totally accept them as part of You...

All is energy, so as well your illnesses too... Your thoughts are energy, yours and collective Consciousness is Energy... Your housing, your food, your body is denser form of energy... Your emotions and feelings are purest and highest forms of Energy created here on Earth and around...

Consider this as you start this practice, or better yet, this experiment on yourself: You will create immense amounts of purest form of Energy right here, by reading these words, by not analyzing these silly tasks, by simply becoming Aware... Yes, Awareness is another element in this Creation of Loving Energy...

So, with this exercise you will create your own Awareness energy... Are you ready?...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

Are you ready to accept and assimilate all the sorrows, all the guilt's, all the 'mistakes' you experienced them in this and previous lives?... Are you ready to see self in the mirror of your own soul?...

Title of this exercise: Mirror, Mirror... Tell me who is the most Loving being in this bathroom and beyond?...

- Imagine that you are hugging yourself, and all aspects of yours, all previous lives, all of your 'wrongdoings'... You need only one big hug, so simply extend your energetic arms all around this bodies of yours, extend it around your bathroom, your home, your town...
- Realize that Today is YOUR first day of your New You!... simply by allowing self to remember that 'Today day' is the greatest gift you could give to others...
- Before this new 'Yours Today's Day' you will take digital photo of self portrait, or if no cameras available, you will search for some older photos of you from albums of the past... Keep this photo available for your review within 7 days or so, after this not so silly exercise...
- Every morning for next 7 days, when you wake up go in front of the mirror, even before you brush your teeth or flash your face with cold water, and do following:
- Have biggest smile while looking this wonderful face looking you back, not paying attention on your wrinkles, or your cavities, or your missing tooth or hair... Look self directly in the eyes;
- Take three deep and very conscious breaths, releasing all the yesterdays and previous lives... with every exhale... And with these three conscious breaths, simply becoming aware who is breathing... Yes, think about who is the One breathing for You?...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

- Following is quite a challenge, so you take it as a game in the beginning: Look into your one eye, left preferably, do not twinkle or blink while doing this exercise;
- While looking directly in one eye only, you say these words to self:
- “Good Morning Dear Goddess/God [your name goes here]... x 3”

Increase every day for 3 more [so on second day is x 6... on 7th day will be 21 times...] All this without blinking or removing your stare...

- But if you do and when you do, you go from start [‘Go back to Start’ kind of Monopoly thing...], to the first day x 3... Please respects self for these couple of seconds, and do not try to cheat your own self with excuses... simply accept that you blinked, or removed your stare and go back to ‘Day 1’...
- Upon completion of this fun experiment, When you eventually reach 21 repeats staring in one eye only, without blink, without twinkling, without moving your one eye contact with your Higher God Self, you can grab a camera and take close-up portrait of your God Self... [than you can brush your teeth, or eventually take a shower... this is a joke... I guess you will take a shower at least once in these 21 day?...]

This looks like a trivial exercise, yet it is very demanding on your ego, and ‘it’ will attempt to keep you in fist day over and over again... But I know you will recognize it and overcome your ego very fast...

If you start heaving strange dreams during this experiment, rushes they are not on your physical body, or strange intuition to do unusual act, or start skipping medications or addictions, or completely refusing them, or small indications that something is different how you feel self and how you perceive reality: these are first small signs of NEW YOU...

This simple exercise that you just completed was not only helpful for you, but wonderful example and guidance how you will start helping others by be-coming New You... Wonderful example of total Spiritual Connection with Your God Self...

Now can You answer this funny question in title: Where God IS?... and Who's choice IT is?... Know there are no wrong answers, only difference in perception...

Oh, right!... perception is not real too... It is only a perception... Right?...

Who Hid my Ascension Key?...

You are the one who have to realize Freedom for you... There is no one else who will let you out of this 3D prison but You, dear ONES...

There are millions of beings around US, among US, who will show us a Key, and maybe they will even unlock the door, and even they will open the door... They will maybe slightly open this door toward this New Free world...

But, there is always 'but' in these tricky sentences... But, they will not lead us through doorstep, they will not push us to go out in unknown, they will not give us a candy standing out and luring you outside...

It is only YOU who will recognize this freedom outside of this 3D hologram construct... It is only YOU who will by his free choice walk these few steps toward unknown... Yet very exciting and very alluring...

It is only YOU who will take your own FREEDOM in your own hands, and truly remember that same Freedom GOD gave you some time ago.... yet, you managed not to pay attention to this gift simply by chasing money, power, or pure existence...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

It is YOU who is the only responsible ONE, who will let You out of this prison cell called illness/fear/anger/despair/money/duality/conditioning/control/ego/competition.... It is only You, my dear Brothers and Sisters, who will walk this pep walk, this walk of your last fame, this walk of gracious courage....

It is YOU, dear ONES, who will carry this most beautiful key in your heart [because, where you go there is no pockets...], as this key will open any doors on your way toward this New Free World...

When you realize that you carry your Key in your heart, suddenly you will start noticing your piers, friends, your family starting talking about Ascension... What is that?... you dare to ask?...

I cannot give you any sane answer, as my knowledge of language is quite limited so I will give you visual description what ascension is for me...

Consider you found this magic Key for this new Free world, where all is possible, where fear does not exist, where only compassion and service for others can reside....

And now you found self in the corridor with so many doors [something like Matrix move, when Neo [or oNe...] end up with Keymaker...], and every door is same except there are signs on each door: ie... Fame, Guilty ones, Eternal Bliss, Funny Office, Quadrillioner's Hub, Underground Ecstasy, Continuous orgasm,

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

Life Forever, Alkiyon Corporation, Ascension...

And this is the answer on your question: What is Ascension?...
Ascension is the sign on door toward New FREE World of 5Dplus...

Ascension is only a doorway toward something familiar, yet almost forgotten millennia ago...

Ascension is only a blink of an eye, or deep breath... where You will truly remember who you really are... but ONLY IF YOU DARE to cross through this doorway without fear...

Otherwise, if there is fear or doubt [simple slight thought that this is not so safe or even not fully FDA approved, or your mum tells you 'watch yourself from unknown and strange door names'...] you will end up on one of the doorframes mentioned earlier... These familiar and common door names... Or you will go back to the first level of present video game that you are playing... [all your gold is erased, all your manna has been spent...] Yet another round of incarnation [or better yet, another couple of hundred of incarnations to go...]

So, stand Tall, know that you have a Key made of Love in your Heart, have no fears,
Have only freedom in your mind, be brave, full of confidence and wondrous expectations, be proud of your courage, and simply step in to the most exciting and most rewarding doorway you can find in this corridor of life here on Gaia... Called Ascension...

See you soon on the other side of this Ascension doors...

Ocean of God's Love... by Jesus...

An allegory:

Humanity has for a long time been like an enormous solid and inflexible construction, built out of salt and standing at the edge of the ocean (the Love of God), a little way above the high-water mark...

Over the eons splashes of water have dissolved small amounts of this pile, allowing these fragments to be re-assimilated into the ocean and awakening them to the fact that it is their natural state... Whereupon they have started to call out to that rigid form that it needs to relax and soften...

And that message over time has spread throughout the structure, sparking an intense interest and a desire to experience that state... As a result the salt edifice has been moving — if at first rather reluctantly — slowly ever closer to the ocean in an attempt to understand it... Now the ocean is washing its base, undermining its foundations (fear)...

But it remains a little unsure, a little doubtful about the wisdom of this moving ever closer to the ocean... It feels that it is about to collapse into it, but the messages are succeeding in convincing it that it has done the right thing, and are continuing to encourage it to overcome its fears and move even closer, because by doing so it will be reunited with all its loved ones... And as its foundations dissolve, it will indeed be irresistibly drawn in, sink into, and identify itself as the ocean... The sense of oneness that that will ensure will bring it to a state of supreme bliss...

You are all on your way to supreme bliss... That is your destiny, your final destination, as willed for you by God, and it is the one at which each one of you truly desires to arrive... Because it is your Father's Will, and yours, nothing can prevent it... You are one; you have one will; it is perfectly aligned with God's; and so it will be achieved... Release all your doubts, all your anxieties, and allow yourselves to dissolve into that divine Ocean where all that you could ever desire is eternally fulfilled – your state of constant existence, at one with God... It is where you have always been; it is just that your awareness of it was temporarily mislaid...

Your loving brother, Jesus...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

What is meant by "God's language"?...

“All down through man's long ages God has spoken to man... His Silent Voice spoke to him first as instinct, then as intuition, and then by inspiration... Inspiration is the language of rhythms which the genius as fully understands as other people understand the language of words... The final, or ultimate means of communication between man and God is the language of Light that comes to Christ Conscious man...”

I can see this beautiful description of Man’s consciousness evolution from the word of Lao Russell from her book “God will work With You, but not For You” so fluent and quite ‘spiritually logical’ in my way of understanding Human existence and evolution...

The way I see present state of Human consciousness is just before discovery of Intuition within... You are only a breath away from remembering your own Intuition; simply stop listening other outside sources while paying attention on voice within... God’s voice within for me resonates as Intuition...

This is just first step toward total freedom from other controlling influences... even from religions and churches who controlled the way you see God and God Self... Yet, this process of self discovery is only in baby steps when baby grabs edge of the table, with biggest smile on her face, like she achieved Heavens!... Indeed she did... In her limited view and not full understanding...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

As baby grows, she realizes there is much more than a plate on top of the table, or legs of the table end somewhere higher than her reach... Soon, baby become aware there is world outside of her crib, or her kitchen... Outside of her home, and her town, and her country, her continent... Outside of her Planet...

And, Yes... We are in this auspicious state of evolution, when baby sees on TV world that she could not even imagine till this point, yet knowing it is somewhere out there...

So, Gods Language speaks to us from this little baby who did not question her unawareness, or not judging herself because she cannot reach top of the table in first months of her existence... She was a baby, remember...

Same applies for Humanity... Please do not judge Humanity of its state of awareness, as we knew there is a world outside of our yard, but never being allowed to question it... At least not too loud... Yet, NOW is the moment to spread this awareness in the open, simply with truth from all aspects of our lives...

For that very reason God will not let man have that know-ledge, and baby man will never find it while he seeks in the wrong direction... Actually the answer is right before baby's and man's eyes but he does not recognize it while his eyes have outer vision alone... When inner vision comes through inner thinking baby man will then recognize it in all its simplicity...

Knowledge cannot be gained through the senses, for the senses are unable to see the true picture of any effect of motion whatsoever... No effect in Nature is what it seems to be... A three-dimensional objective universe is as much of an illusion as a cinema is an illusion...

This universe of motion is but a cosmic cinema projected upon the screen of space from its light Source in thinking Mind... Its reality is at its Source, and not in the projected image...

A creative education should be, and will be based upon doing things which cause the baby/children/man to think and know, rather than to remember and repeat...

Which you know as inspiration...

So, it is equally imperative that you fully understand what is meant by “God’s language”?...

It is intuition for not fully aware human not to seek proof in her instinct, but to recognize his Inspiration within... She will become aware of God’s Language so profoundly within, that She will never look to seek any proof, any information, any knowledge outside of herself... Simple as This...

Answer to 11th: GOD SAID: Be a Knight in Shining Armor...

There is a world of difference between understanding and judgment... Understanding doesn't mean admiring... It means understanding... With understanding comes a certain realization that the so-called other person before you is doing the best he can... Whether doctor, merchant, beggarman, thief, the person before you is doing the best he can at this moment... He really doesn't know better, even if you think he should...

Here's the thing: There is a portion of your psyche that visits where that person is, and, so, you dislike where that person is... You dislike another's affront more than you would if you did not contain within you, no matter how residual, what the other person reflects to you...

If you were the person you are disdainful - you do understand that you are disdainful, don't you? - I would talk to you differently... I would not tell you to have compassion for yourself... I would tell you that you can be a knight in shining armor. I would tell you to let go of the past... I would tell you that you must let go of the past... The past is no more than a step, or a series of steps. The past is rocky and not to be held onto...

If you were the person you are judging or putting down, I would tell you to stop understanding, stop excusing, stop focusing on yourself, take a deep breath, and, right now, become a blessing to the world, and a blessing to yourself... Enough of unthinkingness...

Now have wakingup-ness...

If you were the person you are judging or putting down, I would not encourage you, "But, God. But God, there was this... There was that... I do have my reasons... I have my good reasons." I would not encourage you no matter how many excuses you pull out of your pocket... I would tell you to stop making excuses and begin to serve... I would tell you to be less compassionate with yourself and more wise with the person who offended you... I know he hurt your heart, yet I would not coddle you either...

Actually, I would tell you, the critic, to be less compassionate with yourself... I do tell you... I tell you to be less self-righteous... I tell you to be not self-righteous at all... Two self-righteous people bellowing at each other, even if not out loud, don't get anywhere until one of the riders of self-righteousness gets off his high horse... Since you are here reading these words, I am telling you straightforwardly that it must be you who has to get off his high horse.

You are here to make the world better, so make the world better... Let go of hardheartedness... Be good to your own heart... Anger, resentment, self-righteousness speak in a deafening voice... Anger, resentment, self-righteousness are deaf, and that's why anger, resentment, righteousness speak in a deafening voice... That band of three refuse to hear... They are a sorry crew...

I ask My beautiful children, all My children, to join a band of angels who are sweet on Earth and give sweetness to the Earth. In your heart, apologize to the other who is guilty of being much less aware than you...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

I have said that you are to be the first to greet another... In your heart, greet another in your heart... You do have something to apologize for... At the very least, you have a lack of openness to apologize for... Apologize to yourself for being less than Who You are, and now pick up a sword of kindness and go forth in the world and slay the dragons of condescension, accusation, and dismissals of another's heart and soul... Dismiss your closed perception... Climb to a higher rung on the ladder of life... Let go of the rung you presently adhere to... Let go...

Forgive Self, than Forgive all others...

Forgiveness is frequency that can cleanse any kind of low vibrational energy stuck all over your bodies... Start forgiving Self, than forgive all others.. than go back to Self and forgive some more... Forgive self even because you did not come up with this simple solution earlier... Know This wondrous energy is true miracle worker able to transmute even most 'heinous crimes' or totally ignorant actions of ours or reactions of others ...

Forgiveness is wonderful path to self discovery, where suddenly our self-realization become so obvious... Not only that we realizing who we truly are, but we becoming aware of oneness with all others around US...

Know that You are Perfect, exactly as You are...

With all your tribulations, your experiences, with all your 'diseases', with your 'problems'... Know that these are no more... These are no more in your energy field, as you found the way to transmute them by simply noticing them... by become aware of their purposes... by accepting their existence and their service for your spiritual growth...

You transmuted these energy blockages in to pure acceptance... You become grateful for their existence, and you become very proud with tough lessons that you placed on your spiritual path toward enlightenment...

You are truly grand Master of energies, as You harnessed the most humble, yet very present energy of Love... Yes, you become Enlighten being by harnessing Energy of Love...

Confidence is the Way... Be Your own Hero!...

The manifestation of caring for all of God's creations is the answer to all of life's difficulties and illnesses, so why couldn't You include this into Your mental decisions?... Nothing matters more than Caring for others... Nothing matters more than this...

Once greed is annihilated there will only be caring left, so man has arranged to collapse the entire corporate dynasty that demands all and gives nothing away unless it is tax deductible... Eliminate your greed now, and you will be able to live without these corporate dictators... If you simply Meditate, You are lightening the matrix of materialization, because this energy will deliver the alternatives, not only for you but for collective...

No man can manage disharmony by himself... So, not strange when many man and woman feel urge in these auspicious times for coming together... Coming together is not only a wise choice, it will be absolutely essential to get through hard times... Fighting [inner and outer...] will continue for many of you, but those who do care about man's world will do loving things without getting out guns and destroying themselves or those around them...

Courage and confidence are not the same... Courage means there is a deep rooted fear inside that cannot be overcome without taking a step towards what is feared... Confidence is greater than courage because no fear exists to be overcome... Those who are afraid must add courage to their capabilities... Know that Becoming courageous is the first step to confidence...

Contemplate this: when the days of darkness begin, those of you who have confidence can get out of your living dilemmas because new conditions will become available to you... Only confidence will call these to You... Clearing the way to confidence will advance those of you who do... Others will crumble and will need assistance... YOU, The confident ones can assist...

Settling into an acceptance mode is necessary... Stillness inside is the most causative method of garnering confidence... Sorting out the leaders will be action based... Can you act when afraid?.. Are you afraid of failing?.. If so, does it keep you from acting?... What are you afraid of?... Your own abilities?... Abilities are discovered when you make an attempt, without an attempt they dissolve... Claim your abilities with an active decision made in the moment... Rise to the occasion... It will deliver you more than you can imagine...

Be more than one who calls to others for aid... Get into action, for the love of God is not always meek and mild... Get your dense bodies lighter so you can love with conviction and draw forth that love from inside of yourself... Give an active dramatization of love by choosing direct action instead of totally freaking out and closing down... What does a hero do?... Be a hero when the need arises...

Suffering is only in your mind... You can be a giver of love in any condition... Align with God's design and cancel all of your disturbing thoughts against what God has administered... You are the divine cause of these active dreams, so

be the loving dancers in the dream, not like caged animals when dilemmas arise... Solve the dramas in your life
NOW... Settle your cause oriented disturbances... Solve your non-aligned contradictions... Get out of man's consciousness and into divine consciousness... Be who you actually are, and face life with confidence in yourself and the divine light that dwells inside of you...

Practice dancing as a light dances...

Continue dancing when the darkness appears...

When this happens, light up the planet with your love...

You can be the calm in all non-aligned activities; if you stay dense and you cannot be...

In the days coming we will be looking to you as an anchor of light... Can you do this?..

We are counting on you...

Peace and love are your very nature, claim them and do nothing less than act on that love...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

The much ado about nothing...

Times of sacrifices, wars, pain, global un consciousness... GONE... Long GONE... All we feel are some not fully transmuted energies, some leftovers on the plate from 3rd density... Be very confident that all will be uplifted into highest energy of Love and Unity...

Soon, you will be laughing out loud remembering how empty you felt when suffering stopped... When You choose for suffering is no more... When You realize that You totally evolved in Joyous and creatively exciting world... When You realized that all is as well... That all was exactly as it should be... That all will be exactly as you imagine... simply because You chose to experience it...

There is no more deadlines, no more apocalyptic prophecies, no more lack of any kind... Especially lack of Sharing and Love... Energy of Love is swiping the Earth, and inducing most cherished generator of Love: Human Heart... All 7 billions of these wonderful Human hearts...

And when Your Human Heart generates Love, Unconditional Love [with capital 'L'...], than all of the Universes are Listening...

When you bring your attention to intention of doubt, is this what you manifest in your surroundings, in your body, in your relations, in your energy field that extend kilometers' and miles around your physical you?...

When you wake up, do you have doubt that this dream looks so real that must be a dream only?... Do you even allow self to imagine slight possibility this dream actually exists, and that is actually happening right now?... and only difference is that you only allow small glimpses of truth to bleed through through the veil of your 'doubt and drama you'?...

When you read or watch video filled with new views, paradigms, information's... what is it that you are listening and what is that you are hearing in your lovely head?... Your own doubts, or information's, where You simply allow these information to be presented to you, for your experience, and raise these data to one truth?...

Do you see, When you are doubting, that you are judgmental?... That You are afraid?...

That You are not worthy of being Christ energy?... That You are not worthy of Life that You are experiencing?...

Do you see, when You are questioning your Love to Every soul on this earth, dark, light, angelic, galactic?...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

Do You see That You are denying your Christ Self?...

Can you see the answer to Your questions that I so eloquently posted here?...

Do YOU SEE the Answer?...

If answer is no... Then let it go... Embrace it and Let it Go... Embrace all your doubts, fears, judgments, and jump in this Experience of Love here on Mother Gaia...

CHOOSE EXPERIENCE OF LOVE... CHOOSE EXPERIENCE OF LOVE YOU ARE... CHOOSE EXPERIENCE OF LOVE FOR SELF AND OTHERS.... I bow to you, dear Brothers and Sisters...

If answer is YES... I bow to you dear Brothers and Sisters... BECAUSE YOU know the answer to this question of the ages...

You know that Love is the answer and all you need to do is Nothing...

Simply be Love you are...

Love self and others...

Love others no matter what they did to you in past or in now, no matter what they said to you and about you, no matter what they wrote to you....

Love Your own Un doubtfulness...

Love Your own Unconditional Love to US all...

Can you hear the Hearts of ones who are still lost?...

Who are still doubtful?...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

Who are stil afraid of their own GodSelf Love?...

Can you allow your heart light to ray the way for those who are still lost?...

Can You extend Your Love no matter what?...

Can you expand your Love anyway?...

I can...

I do...

I AM...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

Live life... Live life now and forever...

In this relative world, there is nothing that belongs to You... Your children don't belong to you... You do not belong to your parents, or they do not belong to you... In this temporal relative world, all is on loan... Your life is like a book you loan from the library... Eventually you have to bring it back... Some books you can take for a month, some you keep for couple of years... In every case, there is return date...

Even if you feel separation, I tell you there is no separation... A body dies... Bodies will die... The soul never... There is no loss except as you say so...

Even though you have not physically seen God, He is here, and He is here for you... He Love you... Remember that life is a gift... It has always has been... It is not necessary to spurn a gift... Spurn tragedy instead... Spurn suffering... Live Life...

Life is an offering... It is an offering God gave to you... Take care of the life God gave you... Life on Earth is a passing scene in a movie... While you are cast in the movie, play your part... Never did God assigned you to be tragedian... God assigned you to be light-bringer... Bring light in to your life... Let the light in... Pull up the shades...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

As Jesus SAID: “In my Father’s house there are many mansions.”...

All of God’s children are being nudged towards awakening, and you are for the most part responding very positively... The times of duality, separation, fear and suffering are drawing to a close as divinely intended... Know that Disclosure is imminent — as what is disclosure?

Disclosure is the Truth, kept away from our senses... from your awareness... The truth that humanity on Planet Earth is not alone in the vast universe surrounding and enveloping you can no longer be kept secret.... So very many of You know this, have personal experience of it, and have shared that knowing with others, that the attempts to keep this truth secret are no longer feasible — they are in fact totally stupendous.

As Jesus told you, “In my Father’s house there are many mansions.”... “His house” is all of creation and all the mansions are not billions of stranded and lonely humans on this prison and sterile planet; but glorious, fruitful, and plentiful environments lovingly tended by His beloved children, living in gracious creative harmony and abundance.... All over the Unoverses... Yes, plural... There are multiple Mega universes [7 to be correct...], there are triads of millions of local universes that consists of billions of galaxies, with billions of stars and planets... With billions and billions of Civilizations and species... All These children are your brothers and sisters, and when you come together again and renew with them your familial rapport, your joy will be boundless....

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

They are close by, simply assisting you still in the background, in your sterling endeavors to awaken... Their joy is to assist you in any way they can... So do not fear to call on them; they are ready, willing, and able...

The field of Love that surrounds and envelops Planet Earth at this point in her and your evolution is all-pervasive, and nothing within the illusion remains unaffected by it... And that is why amazing reversals of attitude and behavior are occurring everywhere...

Nowhere and no-one is immune to or shielded from this powerful and divine energy transmission... It is totally invasive, irresistible, and all-consuming... It is in fact the most wonderfully inclusive and indiscriminating of mantles and it subsumes all gloriously within it...

Your unawareness of this magnificent truth will not last for very much longer, unless you make an intensely powerful intent to remain unaware... And why would you?..

Yes, a few who have demonstrably shown that they will not surrender to God's Love will remain unaware, because they have chosen for the time being to dissociate themselves from the truth as they attempt to maintain and even strengthen the illusory environment that has seemed to hold you enslaved for so long...

Eventually, the realization of the insanity of attempting to maintain this enclosed, shut down, incredibly limiting and hostile environment will seep into their consciousness, and then they too will seek out God's loving embrace... Until they make that choice they will be able to continue as if nothing had changed – unaware of the joy into which the vast majority of humanity has surrendered...

Joy is your destiny... It is where God created you and it is the divine state into which you will return... As you wait for this momentous event which will enfold you eternally into the ever-beckoning, all-encompassing, loving arms of your heavenly Father, just relax . . . you need do nothing more than this!... NOTHING!..

This is because by truly relaxing you open your hearts to God, and therefore to all sentient beings, all of creation, and in so doing you become love instead of resistance, compassion instead of judgment, acceptance instead of eschewment – and thus one with all created beings...

Rejection and separation are of the illusion; Reality is infinitely inclusive... None who desire admission will be turned away – this is the unconditional Love of God in action... All You need is Allow...

Your homecoming is awaited with glowing and enthusiastic expectation as we watch and encourage you from the spiritual realms while you drive powerfully forwards to join with us here... You have always belonged here in the divine realms; your absence has only been momentary, but because to you it has seemed endless, we shall celebrate your return in the grandest of fashions, befitting those who have endured a long and arduous journey, which it most definitely seems to you that you have...

These fantastic celebrations will far exceed any expectations that you can possibly imagine... Your delighted amazement is guaranteed! Time to Celebrate Life... As one most magical creations of our Creator... YOU....

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

You can... you can give self total Freedom... Simply with a Smile?...

Even if you still live in this very dense and dichotomised existence...

You can give self path on the back, as You know that you do not depend on situations around you...

I KNOW YOU CAN... NOT BECAUSE I READ FUTURE, BUT SIMPLY I AM

STANDING IN FRONT OF YOU, AND I DID... AND I FEEL ECSTATIC THAT SO

MANY OF YOU ARE HERE BY YOUR OWN CHOICE, BY YOUR OWN

ACCORD...

You can share self, and knowing you have with friends and foes... respectfully... as enemies are here

How many times you asked self: IS this IT?... this is the point of life?... this is the way I will end up?... especially you are attending funerals and watching disasters around the world...

You know deep down in your guts, that Life is not so difficult, but we were the ones who pretended it is difficult... Count how many times just today you thought about hot weather and how many times you question your stupidity to waist time on this presentation... or how come you cannot stand your weak body, your empty wallet, your non loving family...

You know that this pressure is coming from within you... and nowhere else...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

You know that only You are responsible for what is transpiring around you and within your body...

Situations can be imposed upon YOU, yet pressure NOT... Pressure comes within... only Within...

When you notice this self pressure building UP... what is the most simplest act you can do for self?...

[asking public for suggestions... first one comes up with BREATHE...]

Yes, Breathe, dear ONES... Know that NO ONE can breathe for you.... Can you imagine asking your boss or your politician to breathe for you?... It is already so funny for me seeing me going in the office of local breathing authority, where I should purchase next 7 days of breathing rights?!...

Really?... Really?...

By simply Breathing consciously you start allowing self the gift of Life... You start taking life in your own hands... and not some other greedy and not so respectful slave runner, not some religious duds, not some family member...

*Instead Laughing about your way of seeing you in near future,
Laugh now dear*

Brothers and Sisters...

Laugh now, simply knowing that You are the responsible one for states and situations that you see self..

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

*You are the responsible one who can pull self out of these situations and I KNOW
YOU CAN... I KNOW...*

If you see any situation around you as heavy one, you are energetically just picked up very heavy object... some very foreign object... in the same way you picked it up, you can drop it.. Simply drop it and leave it...

This will not diminish your experience carrying disease, or heavy realation, or any lack what so ever... This will not make you Less YOU... Quite contrary...

Lets go of Stress and Strains... Let go of Judgments of self and others...

Will you smile if I kiss you on your nose?... big or small... or even stuffed one...

Can you smile?... knowing that all is perfect in Our universe... ALL of IT...

You KNOW there is life beyond this visible one... and this life is within you...

APPENDICLE & Glimpse in to New Books from PSG...

THE PRICE OF TRUE FREEDOM?... Become free by giving others their own freedom...

This Simple and very open statement and description of War Criminals that usurped our major governments for last 70 or so years, brings end to political and diplomatic immunities [where this word 'diplomat' completely lost its true meaning... as these so called 'diplomats' were at least spies, or drug traffickers, or simply greedy war and profit hungry creatures..]

Where Now it is completely Legal and legitimate to call these beings George Bush, Cheney, Rumsfeld, and all aided lawyers, commanders, CIA officials [who acted in concert to perpetrate War against Afghanistan, Iraq and others...] War Criminals... and to call them publicly to answer for their Crimes against Humanity...

Soon, don't be too surprised when you start leaning from MSMedia that many other Countries who suffered from direct attack and occupations from US, GB, Germany and Nato leaders, to raise their legal cases and prosecutions of Clintons, Regan's, Bush'es, and all the way back to WW1... Countries like Yugoslavia, Poland, Vietnam, Nigeria... and many others...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

I feel this is the crucial moment in establishing Humanity's Freedom from war and fear mongering politicians and 'leaders' and GB's [meaning: greedy bankers...]... This is the moment where countries took legal means in their own hands and executed major victory against oppression over Humanity...

These verdicts I see more like a open Arrest Warrant for any on these 'people' directly involved in orchestrating wars against other countries citizens and its own citizens...

As well our beloved Abraham Obama just signed executive order to rejoin the International War Court [which G. Bush so 'eloquently' rejected for American citizens... including his own butt...], which gives Obama clear and open hands to Arrest and extradite them to International War Crimes Court in Hague...

Only thing I could ask you, please observe your reactions to these news...

Are You doubting is this possible?...

Is it real news, even if does not plays on CNN 24/7?...

Can you forgive these greedy beings like Bushes, Clintons even they have been your presidents?...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

Can you forgive self for voting for these Criminals, as You simply haven't been aware, and you haven't have full truth what has been happening in background, or underground?...

Can you find enough courage to stop blaming anyone, including self for being 'stupidified' for such long times, for not standing tall in asking your freedom earlier?...

Can you make a stand now, simply thanking all the unknown and hidden heroes of every walk of life, who gave their life's, and who stand their truth for all to see?...

Can you see these events to be the most beautiful things that happening to you?... Ever?...

Can You admit to self that Today is the day when YOU can claim Your freedom simply by being in joy for what is coming?...

By simply, not being judgmental toward anyone who brings you good news of true freedom?...

Can You allow self to forgive Bush, Chaney, Rumsfeld, simply knowing that they will, and they have to take responsibility for all actions they perpetrated on to many millions of people of the world?...

Yet Can You remember their actions against self and others, simply by not getting angry, judgmental and revengeful toward these souls?...

Know that Divine Intervention is in play, Know that Father God and

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

Mother God are here with US in full physical form... Know that we have full support and help from our Galactic Brothers and Sisters, all the time?... Know that you do not have to carry any other cross, or burden or bad actions, by getting revengeful toward these 'people'...

Please, see them and their actions as great opportunity to practice your compassion and forgiveness, knowing that they are part of One... One God... One Conciseness...

And only by forgiving these beings, you will give self full freedom to be ready for Your Ascension that awaits us all...

Give it a try... do not be afraid of wonderful news... do not be terrified of pure Truth, even if this is disclosing your most hidden secrets... Be open to all to see who You truly are...

And by giving all others full freedom to disclose self, without judgments and blames, you will give self most cherished gift in the Universe: YOU WILL GIVE SELF TRUE AND UNLIMITED FREEDOM... YOU WILL GIVE SELF GOD GIVEN FREEDOM...

With Love and True Freedom, I AM THAT I AM Predrag Saint Germain

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

I HAVE A DREAM... No more... Now I know... We are free... We are free...

ML King here, dear Brothers and Sisters...

Does Disclosure and First Contact with our Galactic Brothers and Sisters sound like a Dream to You?... What do you think about This wondrous offer?... Does it sound real?... Or, you think it is just another galactic 'scam'?

Exactly... Just simply asking you these questions I put you in doubt and suspicion... Right?... Well, this invitation is for the ones who do not doubt... This is for only ones who KNOW, who We are... This is for the Ones who had been ridiculed, judged, accused, laughed at, prosecuted, killed, sacrificed....

This is for BRAVE ONES, who stand TALL ALL these years of disclosure dates moved around, postponed, delayed, avoided, played with their faith...

This time, I AM not so 'serious' as MLK , but quite contrary... extremely joyful and almost comedian... And this time I AM white dud...

Where again, we choose all varieties of incarnations, not only to experience this duality of the world, but to follow the path of our higher knowing, where our every action has beautiful consequences during our present life, and all the future lives... Especially

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

Ascended Masters, have tendency to leave such a beautiful trail of energies, through their actions, writings, discoveries, philosophies, music...

As MotherFatherGod are all the time saying to me: Masters will walk with US, here on Earth, next to US, be US...

Martin Luther King came some years ago, and truly walked His talk... He never doubt about why He was, and why He was there at this crucial time in American and world history...

Same counts for Me NOW... I Know my talk, and I walk my talk... And, this time, stakes are so much higher than only color of our skin, NOW is time that WE all become ONE, no matter of color, or status, or power, or class, or nationality, or gender, or even Galactic adherence...

Now I know that Freedom is a Conscious Choice... Freedom is our choice... Not theirs, or someone else's... Mine... OURS...

Freedom is a conscious choice, not some imposed rule or regulation coming from higher government authorities... If Freedom is taken lightly, you can be easily tricked in to situations where you can cross the road only on green light, otherwise you can be prosecuted for braking the 'law'... this is just small example of how we were establishing what 'freedom' is... crossing the street on green is only a fraction of full Freedom, but God given Freedom that we completely forgot...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

Freedom is not a toy or car, to have a price attached... So if you pay your bail, or you pay your dues or taxes, or you bribe your jailor... then, and only then you become 'free'....

What is true meaning of Freedom?... How we price Freedom, when moneys and governments soon collapse?... What is going to happened with all the prices attached to the 'crimes' done in the past?... How new government bodies will react on this New awareness of true and Consciousness Freedom?...

Let me tell you how: They [govs'..] will simply dissolve any and all the 'crimes', they will forgive any and all owing to the old gov's, either this is loan or time in jail... We will have true GODgiven Freedom in our hands...

They [govs'...] now Know that Their freedom is bound with Our freedom, as we cannot walk alone... because, there will be no more 'they' or 'we'... there will be no more 'them' or 'us'... There is only US...

And I tell you; people will know heart-fully what is right and what is wrong... We complicated so much our existence, for only one simple and very hidden reason: to easier control the humanity or each other, by entrusting them to be part of leading hidden elite by becoming part of 'legal', 'police', 'military', 'civil' services and power positions... Simply said: very hierarchical level of slavery... hidden slavery...

We do not see that these are only crumbs of all the big and beautiful loaf of Freedom Bread that FatherMotherGod cooked for US... Yet we got satisfied with only crumbs...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

Cross only on green... drive 60 km on this road, and 100 on that one... Pay your fee if you want to get married... than you pay your fee if you want to get divorced... Pay when you give a birth, than, pay when you die... than, pay the fee if you want to be forgiven by priest... than pay for having extra child... pay if you cannot have any children [by paying in to fabricated medical systems...]... than if you dare to consume organic products, you have to pay more than for bigMac... Than if you fart too much, you could be slapped tax for excessive CO2 emissions... and on and on....

I made my choice, at that time in April 1968... I made my choice to be free, and not to be afraid... and to show all the people what real Freedom IS.... It is a feeling that only You are responsible for your actions, and that all the actions are coming from your heart, and your knowing that you cannot offend God... simply having Free Choice...

We want all the Loaf, and no more crumbs... No more crumbs... "

STOP DRAMA-ing, AND START DREAMING... With eyes open... Reboot is here...

Indeed, did you get tired of this exhorting and elaborate lies running on your MSmedia?... Did you ask your self to stop watching and to stop bringing drama in your daily life?... And if you did not have enough during a day, you bring drama in your bed?...

Can you simply imagine there is a way, very simple way to transfer your obsession with daily fears and dramas of survival, of money, of relations, of possession, of control?...

I can... definitely I CAN... and I AM this in every moment of Now...

Simply imagine that story about massive arrests of once prominent and controlling clique is happening...

Imagine greatest surprise on their faces when Marshals and police came to their business and homes to arrest them for all the crime against Humanity...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

Imagine cheering and clapping of US, common and meek folks, standing tall with biggest smile in from of our houses, or business, not afraid what is transpiring... what is unfolding in front of our eyes...

Imagine all the meek finally allow self to open their eyes, as they were shut open for centuries...

Imagine all the banks close for couple of days, to restructure itself, as well to give us opportunity to share what we have with family, with neighbor, with stranger down the street...

Imagine stores opening their doors and giving away all the necessity products, while stores with 'luxurious' merchandise are totally full with products, yet no souls is in there...

Imagine people start walking to see the friend, and simply stop driving without necessity...

Imagine people start cheering and comforting each others, asking how they can help each others...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

Imagine banks start giving full loan and credits forgiveness, coming directly from transition council of the region...

Imagine banks giving each soul prosperity funds in the form of gift, with more money that it can be spend for century...

Imagine people start sharing with each other ideas, technologies, start donating for free energies production, start gifting for cleanup of earth and the sea...

Imagine US all seeing each other as equal and beautiful as we truly are...

Imagine people seeing all the events around them as opportunities rather than sufferings...

Imagine there is no Heaven but here with US...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

Imagine there is no hell when we look in our heart...

Imagine there is no possessions, only gifts...

Imagine all the people know who thy are...

Imagine there are no countries, only unity...

Imagine We all dream as ONE, that we Are ONE...

Imagine that You are not the only ONE...

Imagine You are ONE with FatherMotherGod...

I See people with no fears on their faces and in their hearts...

I see people who care for others as much as they care for self...

I see no more suffering, no more fear, no more slavery...

I see our dreams become True Reality...

I see Freedom in every eye, I see hope in every Heart, I see love in every being here on Planet Earth...

I SEE REBOOT OF THE HUMAN HEART IS HERE...

CATCH 22?... FREEDOM OR TRUTH?... What came first?...

Indeed, silly question: What came first?... Freedom or Truth... or what has been created first: Freedom or Truth?...

Lets elaborate a bit this silly question, and hopefully on the end of this article you will realize the answer by your self's...

Are we Humans ready for this energy called freedom?... not only Freedom word from dictionary description, but full aspect of what we are asking here...

Did you consider that there is no partial freedom, or just a bit free, or let me experience this freedom, so I can decide do I really want it?...

Are you ready for total freedom, without any constrains, without any doubts, without single questioning, without one judgment against self or others?...

Are you ready to feel the consequences of letting go of everything: your illusions, your addictions, your corporations, your feedings, your needs, your cover-ups?...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

Are you ready to speak your truth no matter what is transpiring around you?... are You willing to put your physical existence down for truth coming from your heart?...

Are you able to put your freedom where Your truth is?... Are you daring to act in completely truthful way knowing that this will bring you in full and unquestionable Freedom?...

Are you courageous enough to fully stand in your Freedom: to be free of judgments, free from accusations, free from religion, free from concept of addictions, free from relations, free to love self unconditionally, free from dogmas, free from needs, free from confrontations, free from approvals from others?...

Are you so brave to be happy with your self, to be alone by your self, to knowing this is the ultimate freedom that exists?...

Consider this: there is no partial Freedom... There is no three quarter free... there is no different levels of freedom... There is only one FREEDOM... TRUE FREEDOM...

So, The answer for this silly question in my book from Creator is:
When we experience
TRUE FREEDOM in every aspect of ours, in every thought of

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

ours.... THIS IS ONLY FREEDOM THAT YOU WILL NEED NOT TO EVER ASK AGAIN...

How many of you are taking full responsibility for their own life's?... Or you maybe give some of these responsibilities to your governments, police, partner, boss?... So how many of you demand from someone else, or some other body to take care of you?...

Are you ready to take this responsibility of TRUE FREEDOM with open heart, and never look back again?...

Taking responsibility means stop blaming your parents because they were poor... Stop blaming your partner for not satisfying you... stop blaming government education programs and schools for your kids bad behavior... Stop creating dramas in your life by simply accepting responsibility that You are the one creating them...

So, please educate self what truly FREEDOM means for You... Give it a big 10 seconds thought... Allow this concept to sink in every cell of your body... Don't analyze it with your mind, as you will go back so fast in your prison cell... As soon you bring doubt in your being, you are back in the prison cell...

And Yes, it could be choosy, comfortable, conformistic, confined, complicated... but only if you allow doubt to come in your thoughts...

CAN YOU SEE IT?...

So, dear Brothers and Sisters, breath IN this beautiful God given Freedom... All of IT... and know there is no partial freedom...

AND KNOW FREEDOM IS AN ALL OR NOTHING OPTION... OR MAYBE THIS I NOT EVEN AN OPTION...

FREEDOM IS... AS GOD GIVEN... FREEDOM IS...

Consider that present energies flooding our Planet Gaia are energies of Freedom, Truth and Love... Be kind to your self, and simply do not resist accepting these beautiful gifts from our beloved FMGod...

And by your full awareness, you do not have to do actually a thing for others... as You already did it by becoming FREE HUMAN... All will feel it through Mass Conciseness, as in this Butterfly Effect where some very lonely and beautiful Butterfly swinging his wings in depth of the Amazon, will awake all county of men and women somewhere in Middle East...

Be the Butterfly of the FREEDOM... swing your wings knowing that all is perfect in our Universe...
